

ARCH-CONFRATERNITY OF ST. ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ.

The arch-confraternity of St. Anne, the Brief for the erection of which was recently promulgated, continues to enroll ever-increasing numbers of members since it has opened its register. A great number of parishes in Canada and the United States hasten to obtain their affiliation to it, so as to enjoy the precious advantages granted to the Arch-confraternity by the Head of the Church. Pilgrims have their names inscribed and give their offering at St. Anne's. They also find there the "Little Manual of the Arch-confraternity," already mentioned in our columns, published in both languages, and containing all desirable information concerning the nature, object and management of the work. There is also a special manual for the Directors of the Arch-confraternity, for the use of Parish Priests, Chaplains, Directors of religious communities, etc.

It may be opportune to inform our readers that the object of the Arch-confraternity is to create among the faithful a union of prayers, in order to obtain all the graces asked of Saint Anne. There is no fee required for admittance into the Arch-confraternity. Whatever alms is freely given, is destined to the celebration of high masses for the same intentions as above. Those who cannot go to St. Anne's, may address their name and offering to the Rev. Father Superior, St. Anne de Beaupré.

— o o o —

SAINT ANNE D'AURAY.

A REVIEW ANNOUNCED.

We are happy to learn that the famous pilgrimage of Ste Anne d'Auray, in Brittany, will soon possess a monthly review. Heretofore, the Semaine religieuse of