MISCELLANEOUS.

Nothing can kill an enemy entirely dead but love.

The best thing for us is what God sees to be good.

God is not a respecter of persons, but he is of character.

There died at Kendal, lately, Miss Agnes Livingston, sister of the great missionary and traveller.

The proposal has been put forward to erect a national monument to the memory of Christmas Evans, at Swansea.

The Archbishop of York has given the sum of £100 to provide a few of the poorer clergy of his diocese with a short holiday.

The New Jersey State Prohibitionists began their State convention in Newark, June 12th. Less than half the delegates attended.

At Marylebone Church a paid quartette has been dispensed with, the singing being now in the hands of the congregational choir.

The Ohio State Prohibition Convention was opened on June 12th, in Springfield. The platform declared in favor of free coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1.

A despatch from Hong Kong says the Japanese are administering the customs on the island of Formosa and trade is proceeding upon normal lines.

JUST WHAT'S NEEDED

Exclaims thousands of people who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at this season of the year, and who have noted the success of the medicine in giving them relief from that tired feeling, waning appetite and state of extreme exhaustion after the close confinement of a long winter season, the busy time attendant upon a large and pressing business during the spring months and with vacation time yet some weeks distant. It is then that the building-up powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla are fully appreciated. It seems perfectly adapted to overcome that prostration caused by change of season, climate or life, and while it tones and sustains the system, it purifies and vitalizes the blood.

The Egyptian Government has just granted a concession for an electric road in Cairo. It is suggested that as the Pyramids are but eight miles distant, those famous monuments of antiquity may yet serve as the terminus of a trolley road.

Hall Gaine's method of work is peculiar. His favorite time for composition is at dusk. He sits perfectly still in one of his big chairs that were Rossetti's, until he has composed all he means to use. Then he orders a light and swiftly writes out his work, word for word, as he has memorized it.

Christ's call to men to-day is not a call to preach big sermons, or to do things great in the eyes of the world, but it is a call to self-sacrifice for the salvation of others—a call to the Christlike work of going about, doing good and proclaiming the glad tidings of salvation to a lost world.—Religious Telescope.

AN ODD COLLECTION

A man in Colorado has a quaint collection of bottles. It is divided into two sections. Section one is large. Section two is not. Section one contains hundreds of bottles, the contents of which his wife swallowed hoping to find relief from her physical sufferings. Section two contains a few bottles that once were filled with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was this potent remedy that gave the suffering wife her health again. It cures all irregularities, internal inflammation and ulceration, displacements and kindred troubles. It has done more to relieve the sufferings of women than any other medicine known to science.
