

Editorials—Continued.

- When lynch law becomes a necessity, 370.
- Contracts in restraint of trade, 372.
- Loss of social enjoyment arising out of breach of contract, 378.
- Jurisdiction of Judicial Committee of Privy Council, 381.
- Judicial changes in England, 382.
- The public influence of lawyers, 382.
- Judicial care of prisoners of criminal trials, 383.
- Judicial joking, 384.
- Death of Judge Dillon, 385.
- British Bar Association—Suggested formation of, 385.
- Paternal Government or true freedom, 401.
- Administration of the criminal law, 403.
- Refusal of Royal assent to bills, 406.
- Duty of traveller on highway when approaching railway crossing, 407.
- Part performance, 412.
- The war—Silent leges inter arma, 441.
- Baron Strathcona and Mount Royal—Sketch of his life, 444.
- Hon. Samuel Hume Blake, K.C.—Obituary, 450.
- Aviation and trespass, 453.
- Hearings in camera, 469.
- Criminal trials in France, 462.
- Power of Provincial Legislatures to enact statutes affecting the rights of non-residents, 473.
- Peace when there is no peace, 494.
- The Moratorium, 495.
- Re-opening foreclosure, 506.
- Enforcement of the laws, 513.
- Partnership with an alien enemy, 515.
- The origin of lynching, 516.
- A national crisis and how received, 519.
- Evidence of wife against husband, 543.
- The neutrality of Belgium, 553.
- Legislative power in Canada, 556.
- Documents relating to the declaration of war, 559.
- The Judicial Committee—Rex v. Royal Bank, 560.
- Shock as being actionable in negligence, 567.
- Principles of criminal anthropology, 593.
- Law reporting and digesting, 597.
- American Bar Association, 601.
- Rights of alien enemy in our courts, 608.
- Some points in International law in war time, 612.
- Barbarians by choice, 615.
- When receivers appointed, 627.

Election law—

- Dominion elections—Preliminary objections -- Notice -- Publication -- Rule of court, 118.

Electric railway—

- Duty of motorman—Contributory negligence, 58.

England—

- A national crisis and how received, 519.

Equitable execution—

- Receiver—Practice, 345.