

Editorials—Continued.

- Empire and its meaning, 52.
- The late Sir Glenholme Falconbridge, 54.
- Hon. Mr. Justice Orde, 56.
- Meaning and scope of "Arising out of the employment" in compensation cases, 57.
- Precedence of Judges of the Supreme Court of Ontario, 61.
- The law of mandamus, 70.
- Certain aspects of the Mechanics and Wage-Earners Lien Act, 81.
- The Board of Commerce, 95, 173.
- Ontario Bar Association annual meeting, 96.
- Construction of Rules by Judges who framed them, 101.
- Ejusdem generis rule, 107.
- Our divorce laws—Need of uniformity, 124.
- War and sedition, 134.
- Shorter opinions by Judges, 137.
- Husband and wife—Contracts for necessities, 138.
- Privileged communications, 139.
- Sedition and treason, 140.
- Contempt of Court, 143.
- Is the Statute of Frauds abolished? 161.
- Permanent foundation of world peace, 170.
- Appeals to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, 171, 216.
- Divorce reform, 175.
- Ontario Bar Association, 176.
- Our brothers at the front, 183.
- Fair Rentals Court, 187.
- Right of bail on commitment for misdemeanour, 188.
- The law from a preventive standpoint, 201.
- Chinese marriage laws and the Privy Council, 217.
- Possessory title of land, 241.
- Restraints on alienation, 244-289.
- Lord Durham—His gift to Canada, 245.
- Liability of bank to detect forgeries, 252.
- Contracts by letter, 255.
- Concurrent use of Trade Marks, 256.
- Divorce in Canada—Historical and suggestive, 273.
- Whence came the common law into Canada? 281.
- Sunday observance, 293.
- Ipsissima verba, 294.
- What is a highway? 294.