MAPITAL AND LABOUR.

-8

1. 1. pital is simply the savings of previous labour and is useful in sustaining present and future labour. Capital, therefore, is produced by labour. Labour is simply toilsome work, which is generally performed under the direction of bosses or task-masters and is rewarded by drafts on the fruits of previous labour or Capital. Labour, therefore, is sustained by Capital. Capital and Labour are inter-dependants. The custodians of Capital may abuse their position and grind the faces of labourers; and, labourers may form trades-unions and organize strikes; but, labour and capital will not quarrel any more than a man will quartel with his meals. Cheapside believes in paying labour handsomely, as no country can be prosperous without well paid labourers.

THE CONSPIRACY AGAINST THE CITY AND DISTRICT SAVINGS BANK. THE ACCUSED DISCHARGED AND THE PROCEEDINGS WITHDRAWN-CAMPBELL'S AFOLOGY ACCEPTED.

On Saturday afternoon Mr. Kerr, Q.C, who had been retained by the City and District Savings Bank in this matter, appeared before the Police Magistrate, Mr. Desnoyer, and said he had received the following LETTER OF APOLOGY,

written by John Campbell, from his attorney, Mr. D. Barry :-MONTREAL, November 17, 1877.

To E. J. BARBEAU, Esq., Manager of the Montreal City and Distriet Savings Bank :

Sin,-I beg to say that my telegram relating to the City and District Savings Bank published in the New York Times, of 22nd September last, was written in good faith—the charges therein contained having been communicated to me by a person in whom I had implicit confidence. Those charges were false and unfounded, and I am exceedingly sorry that I was the means of making them public through the columns of the New York Times, and I beg respectfully to apologize to the Bank. I also beg to tender my apology to the Rev. Father Dowd for having mentioned his name in said telegram, and to express my regret at having published a charge against him so utterly untrue. JOHN CAMPBELL.

(Signed) Under these circumstances he (Mr. Kerr) had been instructed by the Bank to withdraw the prosecution. Mr. Desnoyers, M.P., said he was very happy to see the case terminate in this manner, as it gave him greater pleasure to acquit than to condemn. He then discharged the accused. Mr. Barry desired to make the following explanation, which he had been requested to do by his client He said : Mr. Campbell desires me to say that the publication of the despatch to the New York Times was not intended by him in any way to destroy the credie of the bank or injure its business. The information having been communicated to him as he thought in good faith, and believing at the time that it was true, he sent it as a mere matter of news. He is particularly for giving currency to the charge against Rev. Father Dowd a gentleman whose character is above reproach, and who is so much respected and admired not only by Catholics, but also by his Protestant fellew-citizens. My client, as every one knows, was imposed upon and I don't think any will accuse him of being the inventor of the story, either about the bank or the Rev. Faher; Dowd, although he has had the misfortuue of being the means of giving these stories publication. Campbell had also desired him to state that he had never been bribed for sending the despatch, as had been binted and by some believed—other than the just payment of his services by the proprietors of the paper to whom it was sent. With a full desire to do justice to all concerned, his client had sent the same day the following.

APOLOGY TO FATHER DOWD. MONTREAL, Nov. 17th.

REV FATHER DOWD :

No one can regret more keenly than I do that your name in any way appeared in the report published in the New York Times of the 22nd September, in regard to the City and District Savings Bank. I desire to retract in the most unreserved manner the charge which that article contained against you. That it is utterly without foundation in fact is beyoud doubt. Whatever reparation an apology can afford I now give you, aud I can only hope, that in taking this step I may to some extent be able to remove the pain that the matter must have given you.

AN APPEAL FOR ASSISTANCE-A NOBLE CHARITY

the Magdalen's are quartered. They are obliged to work, their employment consisting chiefly of washing, and ironing, sewing, knitting etc. The inmates are divided into two classes, as you will perceive—the lowest being called "peritents," and the elevated closs "magdalens." Religious instruction is imparted to them several times each day, and those who feel disposed to learn are taught to read, write and sing. There appears eo be an impression outside that magdalens can become nuns. Such is not the case. As regards our revenue it is derived princi-pally from washing, and in the summer time we cultivate a garden. Last year we got $1,200 from it, but this year vegetables sell so low we only realized $590. Indeed we are very poor, poorer than when we came here, for we are now in debt. If something is not soon done to relieve our financial condition we must succumb. Our work is not merely confined to the reclamation of fallen women, for we frequently have abandoned children sent to us. Becently a woman named Bolivan, from King street, came to us with four staving children, who are now in the institution. They had not had anything to eat for several days, and were in a deplorable state. Although we were in such straightened circumstances we could not refuse them. We owe a butcher's bill of $700, and a grocer's bill of $500, and $1,000 for flour this summer, and have not one cent to pay them with. It takes 225 barrels of flour per annum to feed the people under our charge ; also $1,200 worth of meat ; $500 groceries, besides what we pay for sugar and butter. To show you that we practise economy I I will give you the bill of fare. Breakfast-A slice of bread with a bowl of coffee. Dinner-Soup, vegetables, and sometimes meat. Supper-Hashed meat if there is any left, bread and butter, and tea.

The penitonts arise at 5.30, begin to work at eight o'clock, and continue until 11,30, when there is an intermission of two hours for dinner and religious instruction and recreation they retire to bed at nine o'clock. This goes on without variation from one year's end to the other. Regarding the manner of admission, we never take girls unless they come of their own free will, because if we were to do otherwise, unfeeling parents might force their children in, to avoid supporting them. Of course, those sent us by the Police Magistrate we accept.

After thanking the Mother Superior for the courtesies which had been extended him, the reporter withdrew, trusting that the many kind friends of the institution, might be brought to see the necessity for immediate relief.-Ottama Citizen.

THE CONSECRATION OF THE NEW BOMAN

CATHOLIC CHURCH AT VANLEEK HILL. On Thursday, the 15th instant, the Roman Catholic inhabitants of Vanleek Hill were in a state of pleasant excitement, and it soon became evident to the most unobservant stranger that some unusual and important event was taking place. It was, in fact, the day appointed for the consecration of the new Roman Catholic Church of that village, and the addltional ceremony of christening the beil. The chief officiant was the Right Rev T J Duhamel, bishop of Ottawa. His Lordship, who had arrived on the previous evening and was the guest of the Rev. Father Boathier, P. P., of L'Original, was escorted on Thursday morning to Vanleek Hill by the residents of both villages. Among the other clergymen present were the Rev. Fathers Bourassa, of Montebello; O'Connor, of Alexandria; McDonell of Lochiel; Towner, of St. Eugene; Lavoie, of Alfred; Cham-pagne, of Point Gatineau; Berube, of Grenville, and Macarthy, curate of L'Original. The Rev. Messrs. Berube, Towner and Macarthy assisted in the celebration of mass. The services throughout were exceedingly interesting and impressive. His lordship preached first in English and then in French. The ceremony of christening the bell was then proceeded with. Among the sponsors were the following ladies and gentlemen:--Dr. Harkin, M P P and Mrs Harkin, Paul Labrosse and Mrs Labrosse, Thos Hougton and Mrs Hougton, Denis Hurley and Mrs Hurley, Andrew Allison and Miss Margaret Allison, J A McDonald and Mrs McDonald, Bernard Kelly and Mrs Kelly, Philip Labrosse and Mrs Labrosse, Petr Saucier and Mrs Saucier, Richard McGrevy and Mrs McGrevy, Peter Byrnes and Mrs Byrnes, Duncan Mackay and Mrs Mackay, Andrew Brennan, Miss Eliza McGreevy, McVicarand N McVicar

CANADIAN ITEMS.

GOLDEN WEDDING .--- The Sister Superior of Notre Dame Convent St. Albans, has just celebrated her golden "wedding," it being fifty years the 18th of October since she first took the yeil. The occasion was celebrated in Montreal with great pomp, nearly four hundred Sisters being present besides many distinguished guests outside the church, members of Parliament and their wives honoring the occasion with their presence. Congratulatory addresses instrumental and vocal music comprised the pro-gramme, and the venerable lady received many choice and elegant presents.

THE CONGREGATION DE NOTRE DAME .- On Tuesday morning, the 13th inst., after the close of the matutinal services, the sisters and pupils of the Congregation de Notre Dame presented the Bev. Father Collins with a richly ornamented and embroidered pastoral stole. The stole was manufactured of gold cloth, ornamented with a rich gold embroidery, and several fleur de lis worked in in the same material. The beautiful workman-ship reflects much credit upon the young ladies and their teachers, by whom it was made. The presentation was accompanied by the rendition of a beautiful cantata composed in the institution, the solos of which were ably sang by Miss Marcaux, and the recitative parts by Madlls Coleman and Brouffe. An address was also read in English by Miss Wallace, and in French by Miss Catellier. Representations took place in a large hall, in presence of all the pupils and sisters, who were assisted by Rev. Father Whelan.

FATAL ACCIDENT .--- On Wednesday last an accident occurred which plunged a family into the deepest mourning, and a large circle of friends into grief. Two young ladies, daughters of M. Donovan, of St. Antoine street, were out driving, when the horse took fright, and became unmanageable. Miss Francis, the younger of the two, an amiable and accomplished lady, held the reins, and with re-markable pluck endeavored to restrain the furious animal. . Her efforts were in vain, a violent wrench of the reins dislocated her thumbs, and she was forced to release her hold. She told her sister to jump, and herself took her fatal leap from the carriage. She was picked up insensible, bleeding and mangled. She was conveyed to the Hotel Dieu, where she expired four hours afterwards. Her consciousness never was restored, hence she was spared the pains of her awful death agony. The deceased was a bright, promising and amiable lady, a treasure in her home circle, and a favorite amongst all who knew her. She was only 23 years of age at the time of her death. The obsequies were held in St. Patrick's Church, and were attended by crowds of sorrowing friends and relatives, and by many utter strangers to the deceased, but who were eager to testify their sympathy to a family so much respected.

THE UBSULINE CONVENT QUEBEC .-- The solemn prayers inaugurated on Friday, for the successful issue of the bestification and canonization of the venerable foundress of the institution, Mother Mary of the Incarnation, now in progress before the Congregation of Rites at Rome, to which we roferred on Saturday, were brought to the conclusion on last week. From five in the morning, low masses were offered by different clergymen, in-cluding His Grace the Archbishep. At eight, a solemn mass was celebrated by Rev. Mr. Methot, Director of the Seminary, assisted by deacon and sub-deacon, in presence of a very large congregation. The office was of the festival of the day, St. Martin of Tours, and the musical portion was rendered in excellent style by the Septuor- Haydn Olub and choir of about forty ladies and gentlemen, under the leadership of Mr. Levasseur; Mr. Earnest Gagnon presiding at the harmonion,. After the elevation a hymn was sweetly sung by the religious and the pupils who were in the minor chapel; the effect was very fine. After mass the Laudate was sung, many of the congregation joined in it. At four in the afternoon, solemn vespers were sung, Rev. Dr. Louis Paquet presiding. The psalms being chanted alternately by the choir placed in the outer chapel and that of the community in the inner one, as were also the hymn Iste Confessor and the cantical Magnificat; after the suffrages had been chanted, His Grace the Archbishop, preceded by his cross-bearer, surrounded by his usual attendants and carrying his crozier, entered the sanctuary and
