IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, Aug. 14. There was a long debate characterised by much obstruction on the part of Irish members in the Commons last night, on a vote for legal expenses inourred in the recent oriminal prosecutions in Ireland. Mr. Harrington alleged that Myles Joyce who was executed for participating in the murder of the Joyce family, was judicially murdered despite the fact that evidence of his innocence was accessible to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland. Callan declared the Government could have brought the Phoenix Barkmurderers to justice without the evidence of Carey, but that Harcourt contrived to have Carey accepted to connect the Irlsh members of Parliament with the zaurdats. Mr. Parnell repeated his charge of party packing in Ireland, and the reckless desire of the Government to procure convictions and strike terror among the people by a tyrannical use of secret inquiry. Mr. Porter, Attorney General for Ireland, gald that as long as atrocities in Ireland went unpunished, the means of enquiry allowed by law would be used without shrinking. When Mr. Harrington charged Lord Spencer with having Joyce hanged, although innocent, he was called to order and then modified his statement as mentioned. Mr. Healey was also called to order for using violent language against the officers of the Crown. Mr. Parnell, as a protest against the conduct of the Government, moved that the amount of money provided for in appropriation be re duced. The motion was defeated by 24 to 93.

THE CATHOLICS OF NOVA SCOTIA. The Moniteur Acadien says that several churches are in course of construction in the diocese of Halifex. A church is being built at the flourishing city of Yarmouth. The large wooden church at Church Point, Clare, county of Digby, is too small, and is to be replaced by a brick edifice costing $30,000. The brick is being made by the local invabitants, who will assist in the work of construction. Another church is in course of construction at Eel Brook, which will be finished by next September. It is also said that a new church will be built at Iles. Il will thus be meen that the Catholic Church is doing well in the county of Yarmouth.

THE DYNAMITE CONSPINATORS—HOW THEY WERE BETRAYED BY JAMES MCDERMOTT. BROOKLYN, Aug. 13.-The Eagle publishes what it claims to be an official history of James McDermott's connection with the Fenian Brotherhood, his betrayal of the dynamite conspirators, &c. It says McDer-mott learned that Dr. Gallagher and his brother were going to England to blow up buildings, and followed them, having first obtained a letter from O'Donovan Rossa authorizing him to correspond for his paper. In Dublin McDermott sought Mrs. Cody, who supplied food to the Phœnix Park murderers, and by lavish use of money, wormed from her the names of the persons who paid her for supplying food to the assassins. She only saw his true nature when she learned of the arrest of the parties whose names she gave him. Featherstone, Rossa's accredited agent, was then in Cork and Mo-Dermott did not succeed in entrapping O'Malley. McDermott convinced Featherstone that he was not a spy, and became quite intimate with him, although O'Malley warned him repeatedly. At a meeting of the dynamiters McDermott made a blazing speech, and proposed to poison Captain Plunkett, resident magistrate for Cork. That night the plans for the Liverpool explosions were decided on. Next day McDermott left for London and met O'Connor under the name of Dalton. The day after his arrival at London, Sir W. V. Harcourt stated in Par-liament that he had been offered information for £10,000 of numerous plots for the destruction of public buildings. McDermott showed Dalton all the public buildings, and he is the personage who gesticulated so violently in the company of Dalton opposite Westminster Palace. It was decided by Mc-Dermott and Featherstone that a box of nitrogiveerine should be brought to Liverpool by Deasy. Deasy was warned not to take any ture of Flansgan and the conviction of him and Dessy. That night McDermott got drunk in Cork, and O'Malley got possession of his notc-book. Following the arrests of Deasy and Flanagan came the capture of Featherstone, O'Herlihy, Carmody and Morgan. The night of the arrest McDermott disguised himself as a minister and urged O'Mailey to fly with him, but the latter knew this would be the signal for his arrest and declined. When Featherstone was arrested ha saw he had been duped by McDermott. The conspirators also learned that McDermott was a witness at a secret enquiry when the Cork conspirators were held for treason. They tried to induce him to return to Oork for the

An old physician, retired from practice having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, Bronchitis, Ostarrh, Asthma and all Throat and Lung Affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve humansuffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. The Rev. Fathers Agnew and Wright, mincionaries from Scotland, who have been sent by the Blehop of Galloway to ask the Catholics of Canada and the United States to assist the poor and small Catholic congregations in many of the cities and towns of Scotland to build Catholic schoole, have arrived in Boston from Canada. The condition of the Iron $1.90 to 2.00; Hoop and Bands $2.50; build Catholic schools, have arrived in Boston from Canada. The condition of the Outholics in many of the Scotch towns is described by the Bishop as very deplorable indeed, inasmuch as being few in numbers and poor they cannot, unaided, establish schools, and such a change in the school law is threatened as will render it impossible for them to maintain Catholic Echools hereafter where none are established within the next years The Bishop fears that in the districts which remain unprovided with Catholic schools, the faith will assuredly disappear.

Father Wright has spent some time in Hallfax and Cape Breton, and the States, where he was received with the greatest kindness and courtesy by people of all classes, Protestants as well as Catholice, and his appeal on behalf of the destitute, in whose cause he labors, was liberally responded to.

Bishop McLachlan says: The question before me, as a pastor of soule, is really, whether in many districts of the diocese our holy faith is to continue and flourish, or else to perish utterly; whether in these districts the souls of the present and future generations of children are to be irretrievably lost, or to be saved. Issues like these may well fill me and my clergy with dread and anxiety. Allow me to add, in the words of our Divine Masterfor Whom and in Whose name I ask your help,-" It is not the will of your Father who is in Heaven that one of these little ones should perish,"-MATT. xviii. 14.

Deasy was arrested on his arrival, and the note led to the capolal dissaters have inspired Montreal mercantilers with a due appreciation of the necessity of regulating business transactions on a cash or shorter credit system, only good will rcsult. As it is, the banks, which are very numerous, are too ready in their eager compe titions to carry forward and assist men who are not capable of sustaining and engineering important business ventures. The fine weather of late has greatly improved the arpearance of the crops, about which there is now little cause for anxiety.

GROCERIES.—Sugar is steady, and there is a very good demand. In molasses, we hear of sales of Barbadoes aggregating about 400 puncheons at 44c, and we quote 44c to 46c. LEATHER .- As orders for boots and shoes are coming in somewhat slowly at the factories there is not much change to note in the leather market, which is quiet. Nearly all buyers who make their appearance seem to know exactly what they want, and will not be tampted to operate beyond original intentions, especially as the offering enables them to fill their wants without exertion. Business has not reached any greater volume, and is about equally divided all through the list. Inducements to buy are not made pressingly. Dealers generally expect the month to close on a better market, and anticipate that manufacturers will shortly begin to cut up more freely. We quote: No. 1, B. A, 25c to 26c; do No. 2, B.
