JOHN C. ENO. " RELEASED ON JUDGE TESSIER'S ORDER, BUT

AGAIN ARRESTED.

QUEBEC, June 2.—This morning at 11 o'clock the case of John C. Eno came up in chambers before Judge Tessier. Eno came up in charge of High Constable Gates. Among those present were a large unumber of local lawyers (Anney) Hubbard of New local lawyers, General Hubbard, of New York, and G. H. Holmes, Deputy U. S. Mar-shall, Mr. Pelletier represented the crown, Mr. Davidson and Mr. Fitzpatrick the prosecution, with Mr. Dunbar, Mr. Irvine, Mr. Tessier (a son of the judge), and Mr. Carran for the defense. Mr. Dunbar contended that the warrant of Mr. Desnoyers was illegal. In the first place the district was not mentioned ; secondly, the information of Fahey and Bissoneite was not sufficient, and, thirdly, the prisoner had no stolen money with him, as represented in the warrant. The warrant did not allude to Eno, but to Hinckly et al. Mr. Irvine made reference to the Ashburton Treaty, showing under what offences a prisoner could be extradicted, but failed to see any bearing upon the prisoner. Eno s tould, therefore, be discharged. Mr. Tessier cited a vast number of authorities bearing on the defense of the case. Mr. Pelletier said this being a private prosecution there was no necessity for the Crown to interfere. Mr. Davidson, for the bank, resisted the appli cation, and gave numerous authori-tics and precedents. The warrant was in overy way regular. Mr. Polletier, on behalf of the crown, said he thought if the prisoner was to be tried, this was the proper place, and not Montreal. Mr. Fitzpatrick took a similar view. His Honour took the case into deliberation till half-past three o'clock, when he entered the court, reviewed the facts and arguments, and declared the warrant utterly insufficient, the prisoner not being described as John C. Eno of the Second National Bank. but as a defaulter from the West Side Bank The result was received with applause. High Constable Bissonnette, amid much excitement, at once produced a new warrant from the police magistrate at Montreal, endorsed by the police magistrate here, anthorizing the arrest of John C. Eno on a charge of stealing $155,000 from the Second National Bank, New York, and bringing a portion of it into Canada. Mr. Davidson said this was a new and incon testable warrant, and therefore Eno should at once be handed over. The judge said he had nothing to do with it; the prisoner was dis charged. After argument by Mr. Davidson and Mr. Irvine, the warrant was handed over to the clerk of the court, the judge saying he would not allow the arrest to be made while the court was sitting, otherwise he should order the constable's arrest. Presently Judge Tessier retired, saying if counsel wished to see him he should be in chambers. Mr. Irvine asked to see the warrant, which Mr. Bissonnette at first demarred giving him, Mr. Davidson also objecting. While he was perusing it Mr. Davidson objected, amid some excitement, to the delay. Mr. Irvine said he had not got through reading, and that the High Constable was an insolent fellow. Fmally the warrant was returned and the High Constable said he would go with his prisoner to Police Magistrate Chauveau, as he had been instructed. No sooner had Eno left the court house than Bissonnette made the arrest. Eno was taken before the Police Magistrate, who ruled that he should be retained in the custody of the Quebec High Constable till to morrow, and that in the meantime the Police Magistrate of Montreal should be advised. Eno's counsel will resist his return to Montreal, as he feels he will obtain justice in Quebee better thau in Montreal. Deputy Marshall Holmes asked Eno if, in order to save any further proceedings here, he would voluntarily return, when he replied, "No, I don't think I shall return." The case comes up again to-morrow. Mean-time much interest is manifested in the proceedings. The Telegraph again has an article strongly condenning the arrest.

Cmcaco, June 3 (nom.) — The spectral pre-isented - was notable in many ways. The working body of the convention, the greatest in point of numbers of any national political assembly, occupied only a small portion of the ered heads, relieved by the rich colors and fluttering toilets of the ladies. The vote for temporary chairman by the delegates has just started. It will probably take an hour and a half to complete the vote: The speaker's desk rests on a platform 12 cet above the seats of the delegates, and the pross occupies the intermediate space midway in height, or about on a level with the heads of the delegates: Back of the chair, ranged in a semi-circle, and on a level space, are scated the remaining officers of the conven-tion, members of the National Committee, and their immediate friends. Back of this circle, on a sharply rising incline, are 1,000 scats, occupied by a great many per-sons of national repute. Swinging over the desk of the chairman, and fairly touching the arches, is a widespreading sounding board, and embracing the side extremes of the building. The delegates and alternates occupy the dead level space bounded by square lines. They are hemmed on two sides by tiers of boxes occupied mainly by guests of delegates. A sec-tion of the hall, occupied by the working body of the Convention, is broken by four wide aisles, from the edges of which rise Roman standards, a pendant with blue silk banners imprinted in gold with mottoes of States and Territories. Back of delegates is a similar space occupied by alternates and separated from the main body by a hardly perceptible partition. In rear of the alternates is a commodious scating space, and beginning at a point 100 ft. in rear of alternate is another dividing wall and that point tier upon tier of scats to point almost midway between the level of the hall and apex of the roof. Narrow gallerics run along the east and west sides of the hall its entire length and seemingly suspended in mid air. The front of the gallery is faced with coats of arms of several states, and on the background of the flags fluttering from arches are the national colors and flags of all nations. The first to arrive on the scene were the staff of correspondents and assistants representing the great journals of the country. The first of the delegates began to arrive at 11.30, and full delegations were in their allotted places before noon.

ARABI PACHA ON AFFAIRS IN THE SOUDAN. LONDON, June 1.-Arabi Pacha in a recent

nterview declared that events in the Soudan were the outcome of the unwise policy pursued by the English. Clemency and an im-partial enquiry into the people's troubles and grievances could alone restore order. Othervise there would be frightful bloodshed before the end was reached. He was certain the Mahdi would never make overtures for peace and would fight until captured or killed. Major Turner, despatched to the Nile to bathing.

THEARDY DEFICIENCY AND ANTIONARY CON-THEARDY DEFICIENCY AND ANTIONARY CON-THEARDY DEFICIENCY AND ANTIONARY CON-THEARDY DEFICIENCY AND ANTIONARY CON-THE ANTION other charges at Montreal.¹ The fact is, we are rapidly losing our reputation as e grain shipping port, the annual shipments showing a terrible reduction of late years, and if the tolls are to be maintained the canals are practically worthless and that better be closed altogether. The Americans have swept away all tolls and we must do the same or suffer the consequences.

We find no necessity for extended mention of the dry goods trade this week. Orders for Canadian tweeds, with which travellers for now out, are coming in slowly, and fail to reach anything like a satisfactory volume. Cotton goods are unchanged, while for woollens the trade has not yet opened.

IRON AND HARDWARE.—Pig iron is dull and nominally unchanged. Warrants are cabled weak at 41s 2d, a decline of 6d during two weeks. No. 3 foundry pig, G. M. CITY BREADSTUFFS, DAIRY PRODUCE AND PROVISIONS.

June 3.

The principal feature of the flour market yesterday was inactivity. Values are un-changed. The only reported sale was 125 bris. fine at $3.50. In grain there is nothing new to report. The market is dull, with prices firm and unchanged. There is no change to note in the state of the provision market or quotations. Busi-ness is confined to a jobbing trade. The butter market is weak and dull, trade is confined to sales for domestic consumption. Morrisburg is 18c, Eastern Townships 18c to 19c. Western 16c to 18c, and creamery 20c for new, with old at 12c to 15c. The cheese market is weaker than it has been for some time, and prices are lower. ranging from 92 to 101c, the outside figure being very difficult to ob-tain. Eggs are unchanged, and prices, 15c, are maintained, although we heard of some lots being offered at 141c. The arrivals are not large. Ashes are unchanged. The re-receipts yesterday were 11 bris. We quote pots $4.30 for firsts ; pearls, $5.25.

THE CATTLE MARKETS.

Cattle freights are quoted at £2 to £3. Some original contracts, made at £4, are now being carried out, but no new contracts can now be made exceeding £3. All the space on the regular liners has been engaged a month ahead at the figures quoted. The receipts of live stock at Acer & Kennedy's yards since Thursday last aggregated 1,048 head of ex-port cattle, 360 head of butchers', and 58 live hogs. Business in shipping cattle yesterday was small, with few sales reported, as the bulk of the receipts were through shipment. Sales were made at about 54c to 64c per lb. live weight as to quality. Live hogs have picked up a little in the way of demand, and sales occurred at 54c to 64c per lb. ac-cording to quality. In butcher cattle a fairly good business was done at figures ranging from 4% to 5% per lb. live weight as to quality, choice bringing the outside figure. The receipts of butchers cattle at Viger market yesterday numbered 175 head, which were offered to a very quiet demand. The top figure for extra fine cattle was 5²/₄c per lb. live weight, and some very good cattle from the Eastern Townships were bought at 5½c. Lower grades were offered at prices weight as to grade. About 100 calves were on the market, and good ones had a fairly active request at $5 to $8 each. Common calves sold at from $2 to $5 each. In sheep and lambs, of which about 200 were offered, a very dull and inactive market prevailed, as large supplies had been laid in by the butchers from previous markets. Sheep sold at $5 to $7 each, and lambs $2 to the weekly shipments of cattle and sheep from this port :—SS. Somerset, 203 cattle; SS. Ocean King, 420 cattle; SS. Cynthia, 252 catele; SS. Lake Winnipeg, 190 cattle; SS. Corean, 422 cattle and 527 sheep; SS. Mala-bar, 315 cattle. Total, 1,082 cattle 527 sheep sheep.

THE HAY AND STRAW MARKETS.

There was a fair supply of hay offered at College street market yesterday from $6 to $8 50 per hundred bundles, as to quality, the top figure for choice. Straw was quiet and firm at $5 to $6 per hundred bundles, choice bringing the outside figure.

SIR JOHN POPE HENNESY, " WHAT DO THE IRISH READ?'

LONDON, May 31.-Sir John Pope Hennessy, K.C.M.G., contributes an important article to the June number of the Ninetcenth Century entitled "What do the Irish Read ?" The article contains the result of the author's observations in the course of a rambling excursion recently made in various rural districts of Iroland in search of health. He says that he was confronted at every stage of his travels with ovidence of the vast influence of the Irish National League reading rooms in the villages, and of the Catholic young men's societies in the towns, in fostering the taste for Nationalist literature. The results already accomplished in moulding the minds of the people are apparent on every hand. ""The irishmen of to-day have." the writer asserts, " in addition to their national adroitness in argument and their love of disputation, a complete equipment of facts, references and historical examples, which makes them very formidable debaters. Their volun-tary taste in their choice of literature is shown to be intensely patriotic by the fact that

With these agonts of the C. & Alton, the agents of the Ohio & Mississippi R. R. will also procure a more special rate for parties who assemble and come in a body. I would like to go East and present the facts to the people, but go Last and present the facts to the people, out I have not time, though I could show from actual facts that fruit, hay, grain, cattle, hogs, poultry, etc., succeed as well or better here than in any State in the Union, not excepting Illinois. The best I can do at present is to publish the rules for obtaining land in the Vineland Colony, and promise full information by letter. The six to fifteen dollars per acre, according to quality of land and improvements thereon. 2nd. The payments can be made as follows: One-half, one-third or one-fourth may be paid down at time of purchase,-the balance in five annual payments. Srd. If parties with to put their money in cattle, or improve their lands, they can buy on time, and by paying the interest hold the land for ten years. This will give, a hard-working man a chance to start with little money and keep his holding until it doubles in price. 4th. All parties wishing to locate in this colony will find it to their interest to come and see it in once as first come first served.

see it at once, as first come first served. 5th. Parties who cannot come, and still wish to locate on farms, can do so by sending the first payment with statement of the value of farm they want, and I will see that the very best be done for thom and the proper papers are sent in return.

6th. Parties who send their money to us in this way, without seeing land, can get their money back if they are not satisfied with the in-vestment when they come to examine it. We un no risks in doing this, as lands are going up in price rapidly. The Berry Bros., who own these 20,000 acres The Berry Bros., who own these 20,000 acros of land, have prepared it for a Catholic Colony, They have succeeded in establishing another prosperous Catholic colony before this, and will make this colony successful. A coal mine has been discovered close by lately, and land seekers will do well to come and see this rich and prosperous country, or they can get full in-formation by addressing. formation by addressing,
