BRIEFLETS.

Z. L.—Many thanks. Exclamation and repetition seem to be your favorite figures.

His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface returned from St. Albert last Thursday.

Noah was evidently in the pickling business—at least he filled the ark with preserved pairs.

Extra copies of our last issue, Sept. 26, were sold out long before the demand could be supplied.

The Very Rev. the Vicar General Dugas has finished his official visitation of St. Boniface parish.

Mr. Rowland Dixon, the well known Winnipeg druggist, is expected back from New York next Saturday.

The corner stone of Rev. Father Jolys' new church at St. Pierre-Jolys will be blessed on Wednesday, October 18. His Grace will the same day visit this parish after having visited St. Malo.

Squire's Daughter — Good morning, Marjorie. How are the twins, and what names are you going to give them? Marjorie—Well, miss, we've decided to call one "Kate" and the other "Duplicate."—Punch.

There is a change in the government of the Sisters of Mercy in Winnipeg. Sister St. Mary Magdalen, who has been Superior since their arrival here, returned to Montreal last evening, and is succeeded by Sister Ste. Lucie.

The jubilee celebration of Rev. Father Cherrier's 25 years of ordination will begin this evening with a French sermon by Rev. Father Jolys, a very cultured preacher, in the Immaculate Conception Church. Sermon by His Grace at High Mass tomorrow, 10.30; presentation by the laity in the evening, 7.30, in the church, whence the Blessed Sacrament will be removed, and a few words of congratulation from Rev. Father Drummond.

Messrs. Marrin, Jobin and Tomlinson have applied for incorporation to carry on a wholesale grocery and commission business under the name of the Marrin-Jobin Co., with a capital stock of $60,000. The company are erecting a commodious warehouse on Market street east, connecting with the Transfer railway. The members of the firm have conducted a large retail business at the corner of Main and St. Mary's avenue for many years.

From Stovel's Pocket Directory for October, which came to hand yesterday, we gather that there are now 27 newspapers and periodicals published in Winnipeg and St. Boniface. There are really 28, if we include Waghorn's Guide, which Stovel's Directory ignores. Stovel comes a good deal nearer than Waghorn to Father Kulawy's name; he prints it "Kulawy." Try again; you're sure to get it next time. The unmistakable clearness of the directions for using the street key for the map of Winnipeg is a very useful feature of Stovel's Directory.

The old roof of the archiepiscopal palace is being changed into a mansard roof in order to make it agree with the new east wing.

J. H. Y.—We are not forgetting our promise about the translation of the Latin passage from "Vox Urbis." We shall probably be in a position to fulfil it next week.

Rev. Father Lacasse, O. M. I., when last heard from, was at Lebrét, Assa. His health, which had been rather poor lately, is now, we are happy to state, much improved.

It is estimated that Kansas City, Mo., has a population of 192,000, and Kansas City, Kan., 50,000. Missouri is proud of the advantage; but what sameness there is in the repetition of these names. Our American friends seem to lack the inventive imagination in this respect. There are 165 places in the United States called Washington.

Mr. Hector Prince, a well known rancher of the Medicine Hat district, died very suddenly on Monday last. Mr. B. Prince, of Battleford, was in Winnipeg when he received the news of his brother's death, and left on the next train for Medicine Hat to prepare for the funeral arrangements. The late Mr. Prince was almost thirty years of age and highly respected in the west. Deceased was a cousin of Mr. J. A. Bêliveau, of the English Chop House.—Evening News Bulletin, Sept. 27. The funeral took place last Sunday.

His Grace the Archbishop went to Portage la Prairie last Saturday, accompanied by Rev. J. Paquin, S. J., rector of St. Boniface College. Mgr. Langevin said a few words at the 8 o'clock Mass to the children who were making their second communion, and at High Mass, sung by Rev. Father Viens. His Grace explaining the purpose of the episcopal visitation, took occasion to review all the sacraments in a most impressive and instructive manner. In the evening after Vespers, the parishioners of St. Cuthbert's presented an address in which they warmly thanked the Archbishop for giving them so zealous and efficient a pastor as Father Viens.

There are times when a horse knows more than a man; when instinct is superior to reason. The horse fights against being forced over the brink of a precipice which he can see in the dark but which is veiled from the man's eyes. It is often the same with a man's body; it fights against carrying the man over the brink of the precipice, disease. When the heart beats irregularly; when there are pains in the head, ringing in the ears, cough, indigestion, loss of appetite and lack of energy—some or all of the symptoms—the body is on the brink of danger and is crying "halt!"

No man need be carried over the fatal brink of disease if he will heed Nature's warning and accept her help. This help in its most concentrated and perfect form is contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This great alternative extract completely modifies every abnormal condition of the disordered digestive or alimentary functions. It makes the stomach strong, the blood rich and healthy, builds up the nerve centers and regulates the functions of all the vital organs, that they co-operate perfectly for the health of the entire system. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whisky or other intoxicant.

Mr. Geo. Minter, of 2237 Thompson Street, Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "Some time ago I was terribly run down. Numerous ailments had been coming upon me one by one. I decided to try 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Pleasant Pellets.' The benefit derived was beyond my fondest hopes. I took five bottles of the 'Discovery' and used the 'Pellets' when necessary. During the time of taking the five bottles as directed, I gained in weight 24 pounds, weighing more than ever in my life; bringing me health and strength, and removing these ailments, viz: Palpitation of the heart, sleepless nights, pressing and splitting pains in the head, ringing in the ears, with partial deafness and throbbing, a nagging cough, indigestion, depression of spirits, loss of energy, constipation, a tired feeling upon rising and through the day, appetite poor, sight defective, very nervous, etc. Those golden bottles of your 'Discovery' and the 'Pellets' removed all those troubles, and more, and made me as well at fifty as I have ever been in my life."

About 40 persons received Confirmation in the morning. Fully three quarters of the people present at the evening service were leading Protestants of Portage.

Waghorn's Guide for October, received Sept. 30, is quite up to date, giving, for instance, the new manager of the Bank of Commerce, Mr. John Aird. That crop of all local reporters, the name—Kulawy—of the two Oblate Fathers who attend the new church on Selkirk street, is printed in the Guide as "Colavij," seven letters of which only two are right.

MONSIEUR DE LA BORDERIE

Pascal Genty de la Borderie was born at Bellac, near Limoges, France, sixty-three years ago. His early school days were spent at the Petit Séminaire of Langres and he took a college course in the Lycée of Poitiers. Having lost his father and being the only son of his widowed mother, he was exempt from military service and became a banker. About 1886 he met with financial reverses and the following year he came to settle in Manitoba, taking up a homestead in that southern section of the province near Otterburne where he gave his name to the postoffice which in 1895 was called LaBorderie and is now called LaRochelle. He established a creamery and factory for condensed milk which he afterwards ceded to Messrs. Guibault and S. A. D. Bertrand, under whom he was employed at the time of his last illness. He had been suffering from indigestion for some years and during the last few months the trouble became so serious that he was obliged to come here for drastic treatment. As there was no private room vacant at St. Boniface Hospital he took one at the Winnipeg General Hospital about the 19th of last month. The doctors soon saw that the symptoms pointed to cancer and, at his own request, informed him of his danger. He immediately began by setting the affairs of his soul in order, called for a priest and made a most humble and sincere confession of all his sins. He received the Viaticum and was anointed on Thursday last. The following day an operation was performed to see what could be done. It was found that the entire pancreas was indurated by cancer. Had matters been left as they were, the patient could not have lived a week, and there was good reason to hope by short-circuiting the intestines he might live for a year or two. This was done and the operation seemed quite successful. But, after two days, death supervened rather suddenly.

Monsieur de la Borderie was thoroughly prepared for this fatal ending. He made his will before the operation and gave a few final instructions to his friends as to the disposal of his personal property, choosing a trusted friend, Mr. Cinq-Mars, the well known St. Boniface builder, as his executor. M. de la Borderie leaves a widow and two married daughters living in France. The remains were kept at Mr. Cinq-Mars' house, where many friends went to pray yesterday.

The High Mass of Requiem was sung this morning at 9 o'clock by the Rev. Father Jolys, the Vicar-General and the Rev. Father Drummond assisting at the last rites. Quite a number of the deceased's Winnipeg and St. Boniface friends were present. Miss Chevrier sang beautifully Schubert's "Adieux." The pall-bearers were Messrs. A. Lafon, A. A. C. LaRivière, M. P. Jos. Lecompte, H. Royal, Ernest Cyr, E. Charlet. The funeral arrangements were in the able hands of Mr. John Hughes. R. I. P.

A New Departure.

Dr. Marschand, the celebrated French physician, has at last opened his magnificently equipped laboratory in Windsor, Ont. There is a large staff of chemists and physicians at his command, and the men and women of Canada may now procure the advice of this famous specialist free of charge.

Dr. Marschand has a world-wide reputation for successfully treating all nervous diseases of men and women, and you have but to write the doctor to be convinced that your answer, when received, is from a man who is entitled to the high position he holds in the medical fraternity.

Who suffer in silence when you can secure the advice of this eminent physician free of charge.

All correspondence is strictly confidential and names are held sacred. Answers to correspondents are mailed in plain envelopes.

You are not asked to pay any exorbitant price for medicines, in fact it rarely happens that a patient has expended over 50 cents to one dollar before he or she becomes a firm friend and admirer of the doctor.

"The Teachings of Science"

Bear out the statement of Sir Astley Cooper, the great English physician, that "Ale is a liquid food." C. H. Blake, M. D.

There is no higher authority quoted than that of "Sir Astley Cooper."

He declares that "Ale is a liquid food." When made from the best of malted barley—the pick of the fragrant hops—and brewed with the purest of well water, as our which "SPARKLES LIKE CHAMPAGNE," is, then indeed "Ale is a liquid food."
