

- (i) Country-to-country round-trip transportation.

The scholarships offered by Canada will include:

- (a) Country-to-country round-trip transportation.
- (b) A stipend of Can$ 600 (six hundred Canadian dollars) per month.
- (c) Health insurance.

The individuals awarded scholarships must be single, or at least must travel alone.

If the cost of living should increase significantly, the Parties will review and study the possibility of increasing the amounts stipulated under this Programme, and will give their replies through diplomatic channels.

EXCHANGES OF ARTISTS

3. The terms and conditions respecting the defrayal of expenses relating to the exchange of soloists and groups of artists will, in each specific case, be the subject of a special agreement between the corresponding institutions, arranged through diplomatic channels.

4. Groups of artists must contact the receiving country's embassy, to see to the necessary formalities and obtain any visas required.