

2. Each Contracting Party agrees, for the purpose of rendering effective the provisions of this Convention, to enact and enforce necessary laws and regulations, with appropriate penalties against violations thereof, and to transmit to the Commission a report on any action taken by it in regard thereto.

ARTICLE X

The Contracting Parties agree that a scientific program is necessary to carry out the provisions of this Convention. To this end the Contracting Parties agree to establish such a program to coordinate their scientific research activities with respect to anadromous species in the Convention area as well as species of marine mammals incidentally caught in fishing for anadromous species. In this regard, the Contracting Parties agree to exchange scientists in order to carry out scientific observations with respect to the catches and methods of operation. The Contracting Parties shall establish procedures to facilitate such observations.

ARTICLE XI

1. The Contracting Parties agree to hold consultations whenever necessary, or not later than sixty days following the request of any of them, in order to review the implementation of this Convention.

2. The Contracting Parties agree to hold consultations, at a time and place to be mutually agreed upon, not later than ninety days following notice by any Contracting Party of its intention to terminate the Convention in accordance with the provisions of Article XII, paragraph 1. of this Convention.

ARTICLE XII

1. This Convention shall continue in force until one year from the day on which a Contracting Party shall give notice to the other Contracting Parties of an intention of terminating the Convention, whereupon it shall terminate as to all Contracting Parties.

2. This Convention shall be subject to review by the Contracting Parties upon the conclusion of a multilateral treaty resulting from the Third United Nations Conference on the Law of the Sea.

ANNEX

1. The following measures shall apply to salmon fishery operations conducted by Japanese nationals and fishing vessels in the waters of the Convention area:
