

ARTICLE 7PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

1. United Nations officials, and experts on mission for the United Nations, performing functions in connection with the Institute shall enjoy the privileges and immunities provided under Articles 5 and 6, respectively, and 7 of the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations.
2. Holders of United Nations fellowships for or at the Institute shall be granted such status as may be required for the performance of their functions in connection with the Institute.
3. All persons referred to in this article shall be granted speedy travel and a visa, when required, shall be issued promptly and without charge.

ARTICLE 8ENTRY INTO FORCE AND DURATION OF AGREEMENT

1. This Agreement shall enter into force upon signature.
2. It shall remain in force for five years after which time it may be terminated by either party on one year's notice. In 1998 and every four years thereafter there will be a review of the implementation of this Agreement by representatives of the parties. They shall submit a joint report on the operation of the Agreement to the parties and any other relevant entities.
3. This Agreement may be modified by mutual accord in writing between the parties and each party shall give full and sympathetic consideration to any such request. Such modification may include the addition of one or more Member States as parties.