

APPENDIX No. 1

	PAGE.
LONG DISTANCE LINES—Con.
Receipts, method of dividing.	Turgeon 509
Regulations for, should differ from those for local exchanges.	Dewart 755, 757
Retransmitting messages from other systems over company's lines not objected to.	Aylesworth 778, 780, 781, 782, 783
Revenue and expenditure of long distance service.	Sise 612
Rural companies, do not get much long distance business from.	Winfield 348
Toronto and Montreal, service between, congested under present conditions.	Dunstan 802
United States, points where Bell connects with companies in.	Sise 496
Value (relative) of long distance construction and that of small companies makes fair division of revenue difficult.	Pickernell 899
Wire used in Canada and abroad, weight of.	Sise 611
Wire used, weight of.	Demers 231, 256

McFarlane, Lewis B., General Superintendent, Bell Telephone Co., Montreal:

Agencies are points where there is no exchange.	808
Automatic system a failure in Canada ten or twelve years ago.	833
Automatic system in Piqua, Ohio, did not get a good impression of.	833
Automatic system, not prepared to give information as to merits of.	833
Bascom & Forrest, Drs., agreement between Bell Co. and.	950-952
Bascom & Forrest, Drs., company has no power to dictate to regarding refusal to allow persons to use their line.	835, 836
Beauce Telephone Co., negotiations with for exchange of business.	822-824
Bell Co. is doing all it can physically and financially to supply demands.	830
Bell Co.'s service, has been in since 1880.	803
British Telephone service, has no personal knowledge of.	825
Cameron, Mr. Angus, his statement that company does not want subscribers in the country, refuted.	810
Capital of $10,000,000 would be required to supply demands of which committee speaks, additional.	830
Connect with 30 or 40 companies.	825
Connection between independent companies in United States referred to	814
Connection between telegraph companies, method of.	813
Connection between various companies, difficulties in regard to.	814
Connection with other companies, enforced physical, equivalent to one company using property of another without proper compensation.	813
Connection with other lines has been confined to companies that were not local competitors.	822, 834, 835
Connection with small companies entails waste of time.	814
Connections with 'Bell' lines over intermediate system, company would have no control of unless by agreement.	836
Co-operative or farmers' companies, if they can give service at less than $15, we should leave the field to them.	824
Contingent fund, substantial, necessary owing to rapid changes.	832
Contingent fund will cease adding to when business stops growing.	832
Dundas Telephone Co. was a financial failure.	817
'Demers' system, company has done very little in that part of Quebec where it operates.	830
Develop larger centres in preference to smaller ones, proper policy is to	824
Exchange of business with other companies conditional upon each system being confined to a certain limited territory.	813