

Contents

Introduction

I Broad Issues

The Piecemeal Approach

Functions and Objectives: How Feasible and Appropriate?

Problem of Need (para.'s 10-12)

Services to the Unemployed (para.'s 13-20)

Financing the Program (para.'s 21-28)

The Climate for Change (para. 29)

II Specific Considerations

the self-employed (para.'s 31-32)

retirement benefits (para.'s 33-34)

charitable organizations (para. 35)

provincial participation (para. 36)

Eligibility and Benefits

sickness and maternity (para. 37)

conditions of entry (para. 38)

level of benefits (para. 39)

duration of benefits (para. 40)

Contributions

employee (para. 41)

employer (para.'s 42-44)

federal government (para. 45)

Appendix: Extracts from Social Policies for Canada, Part I