[English]

I think at this point it might be helpful to explain to members and to the public that I will presently be calling in the members to vote. This is a matter of explanation only. There will be a 15 minute bell. Following that there will be votes on all the motions which I have been putting to the House and when that is concluded there will, of course, be one further vote and there may be a bell at that time and that will end the proceedings.

I am obligated to read the following to the House.

[Translation]

The House will now proceed to the deferred recorded divisions on the report stage of the Bill now before the House.

(Division No. 218)
