

PREFACE.

BY kind permission I am allowed the honour of dedicating this little work, "Our Volunteers in the North-West," to the Hon. Mr. A. P. Caron, Minister of Militia of the Dominion, a gentleman of whom it may be said—

"He dares do all that may become a man,
Who dares do more, is none."

The object of my labour has been to perpetuate amongst their friends and the public, the names of those brave men who have so nobly answered to the call to arms and placed their lives and services at the disposal of their Queen and country. The work purports to be a list of the officers, non-commissioned officers and men, by regiments, troops, batteries, and companies, now on active service in quelling the unhappy disturbances in the North-West Territories of the Dominion of Canada. I have taken every precaution to obtain reliable information from headquarters of corps, and humbly trust my efforts will meet with the approval and support of the volunteers and the public generally.

HORACE G. DUNLEVIE,

Late 1st Batt. G. G. Foot Guards,
