

4. If any person shall omit to shut and fasten any gate set up at either side of the Railway, for the accommodation of the owners or occupiers of the adjoining lands, as soon as he and the carriage, cattle, or other animals under his care have passed through the same, he shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding forty shillings.

5. If any person, after the Railroad, or any section thereof, shall be opened for use, shall himself go thereon, or shall drive or lead any animal thereon, he shall for every such offence forfeit a sum not exceeding forty shillings; but nothing in this regulation shall prevent the passing across the Railroad where the same is crossed by any other road on a level therewith.

6. If any animal shall be found going at large within the limits of the Railroad, or any section thereof, after the same shall be opened for use, the owner thereof, and the person through whose default or neglect the same shall occur, shall for every such offence severally forfeit a sum not exceeding forty shillings, provided the Railroad shall have on the sides thereof, where it does not cross some other road on the same level, a fence approved of by the Commissioners.

7. If any person shall travel or attempt to travel in any carriage belonging to the railroad, without having previously paid his fare, and with intent to avoid payment thereof, or if any
