LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

IN 1888 THE LIVING AGE enters upon its forty-sixth year. Approved in the outset by Judge Story, Chancellor Kent, President Adams, historians Sparks, Prescott, Ticknor, Bancroft, and many others, it has met with constant commendation and success.

A WEEKLY MAGAZINE, it gives more than double-column octavo pages of reading-matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its great amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a completeness nowhere else attempted.

Three and a Quarter Thousand

The best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical, and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature, and from the pens of the FOREMOST LIVING WRITERS.

The ablest and most cultivated intellects, in every department of Literature, Science, Politics, and Art, find expression in the Periodical Literature of Europe, and especially of Great Britain.

The LIVING AGE, forming four large volumes a year, furnishes, from the great and generally inaccessible mass of this literature, the only compilation that, while within the reach of all, is satisfactory in the COMPLETENESS with which it embraces whatever is of immediate interest, or of solid, permanent value.

It is therefore indispensable to every one who wishes to keep pace with the events or intellectual progress of the time, or to cultivate in himself or his family general intelligence and literary taste.

OPINIONS.

"No man who understands the worth and value of this sterling publication would think of doing without it. Nowhere else can be found such a comprehensive and perfect view of the best literature and thought of our times."—Christian at Work, New York.

"It is one of those few publications, weekly or monthly, which seem indispensable. There is nothing noteworthy in science, art, literature, biography, philosophy, or religion, that cannot be found in it. It contains nearly all the good literature of the time. Such a publication exhausts our superlatives."—The Churchman, New York.

"Replete with all the treasures of the best current thought, the best fiction, and the best poetry of the day. It stands unrivalled."—The Presbyterian, Philadelphia.

"It maintains its leading position in spite of the multitude of aspirants for public favor."—New York Observer.

"Biography, fiction, science, criticism, history, poetry, travels, whatever men are interested in, all are found here."—The Watchman, Boston.

"By the careful and judicious work put into the editing of THE LIVING AGE, it is made possible for the busy man to know something of what is going on with ever-increasing activity in the world of letters. Without such help he is lost."—Episcopal Recorder, Philadelphia.

"In it we find the best productions of the best writers upon all subjects ready to our hand."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

"The readers miss very little that is important in the periodical domain."—Boston Journal.
