

balloted for as such as in the usual way, without payment of the entrance fee, but shall pay the annual subscription of a non-resident member. Such privileged members shall enjoy all the advantages of membership except being on the Committee and voting, and may at any time, on obtaining the consent of the Committee, become ordinary members on payment of the entrance fee.

(d.) Privileged members, other than those mentioned in sub-section a of this section, shall not pay the entrance fee, but in lieu thereof shall pay in addition to the ordinary annual subscription an amount equivalent to 20 per cent of the then existing entrance fee, and at the expiration of five years from the date of their election as privileged members shall become full members without further payment. They shall enjoy all advantages of membership during the term for which their cause of privilege lasts, except being on the committee and voting and may at any time, on obtaining the consent of the committee, become ordinary members on payment of the balance required to complete the amount of the entrance fee. The 20 per cent shall be paid semi-annually.

Introduced members.

11. Any ordinary member shall have the right of introducing a friend, resident elsewhere than within a radius of fifty