OUTLINES OF

SCRIPTURE GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY.

Illustrating the Historical Portions of the Old and New Testaments.

DESIGNED FOR THE
USE OF SCHOOLS AND PRIVATE READING.

BY EDWARD HUGHES, F.R.A.S., F.G.S., &c. &c.

In one neat volume, royal 12mo., extra cloth, of about four hundred pages, with twelve colored Maps.

The intimate connection of Sacred History with the geography and physical features of the various lands occupied by the Israelites renders a work like the present an almost necessary companion to all who desire to read the Scriptures understandingly. To the young especially, a clear and connected narrative of the events recorded in the Bible, is exceedingly desirable, particularly when illustrated, as in the present volume, with succinct but copious accounts of the neighboring nations and of the topography and political divisions of the countries mentioned, coupled with the results of the latest investigations, by which Messrs. Layard, Lynch, Olin, Durbin, Wilson, Stephens, and others have succeeded in throwing light on so many obscure portions of the Scriptures, verifying their accuracy in minute particulars. Few more interesting class-books could therefore be found for schools where the Bible forms a part of education, and none, perhaps, more likely to prove of permanent benefit to the scholar. The influence which the physical geography, climate, and productions of Palestine had upon the Jewish people will be found fully set forth, while the numerous maps present the various regions connected with the subject at their most prominent periods.

HISTORY OF CLASSICAL LITERATURE.—(Now Ready.)

HISTORY OF ROMAN CLASSICAL LITERATURE.

BY R. W. BROWNE, M.A.,

Professor of Classical Literature in King's College, London.

In one handsome crown octavo volume, extra cloth.

ALSO,

Lately Issued, by the same author, to match.

A HISTORY OF GREEK CLASSICAL LITERATURE.

In one very neat volume, crown 8vo., extra cloth.

From Prof. J. A. Spencer, New York, March 19, 1852.

It is an admirable volume, sufficiently full and copious in detail, clear and precise in style, very scholar-like in its execution, genial in its criticism, and altogether displaying a mind well stored with the learning, genius, wisdom, and exquisite taste of the ancient Greeks. It is in advance of everything we have, and it may be considered indispensable to the classical scholar and student.

From Prof. N. H. Griffin, Williams College, Mass., March 22, 1852.

A valuable compend, embracing in a small compass matter which the student would have to go over much ground to gather for himself.
