

- Martinique, island of, British troops sent against, 325—landing effected, ib.—abandoned by the British, ib.—attacked by Major-General Monckton, 352—the Morne taken, 353—capitulates, 354.
- Memoirs of an English Cavalier, quoted, 77.
- Menzies of Cudares, makes a present of a charger to Prince Charles, 55.
- Merchant's History of the Rebellion, quoted, 259, note.
- Military character, what it depends on, 242—importance of, 243—of the Highlanders, ib.
- Minorea, capture of, 455.
- Moir, Lord, sails with an expedition to Flanders, 422.
- Moore, General Sir John, commands a brigade in the West Indies, 431—engaged in the capture of St Lucia, 437—his great zeal, 411, note—joins the expedition for Egypt at Minorea; 456—in the battle of Alexandria in Egypt, 477—assumes the command of the British army in Portugal, 522—encounters difficulties in Spain; 522—wounded at Corunna, 534—his death and character, 539.
- Munro, George, of Culeairn, an officer in the Black Watch, 249, 253—shot by a Highlander, 280, note.
- Sir Hector, commands a detachment in the Highlands, 66—appointed Colonel of the Royal Highlanders, 412—his death and character, 518, note.
- John, an officer in the Black Watch, 253—his account of the battle of Fontenoy, 278.
- Sir Robert, Lieutenant-Colonel of the Black Watch, 253—commands them at Fontenoy, 278, 281—killed in the battle of Falkirk, 279, note.
- a soldier of the name strikes his officer, 516.
- Murray, Sir Patriek, an officer in the Black Watch, 289.
- Names of places, Celtic, Gothic, and Danish, 6, note—11.
- Negroes, their treatment compared with that of the Highlanders, 154—expert marksmen, 287, note.
- Newfoundland, St John's, taken by the French, and retaken, 362.
- Niagara, Fort of, attacked by the British, 333—taken, 334.
- Nimeguen, the British troops attacked by the French at, 423.
- Parish relief established in England, 157.
- Peasantry of England, cause of their degradation; 157.
- of Ireland, cause of their discontent, 217.
- Peebles, reception of the 42d regiment by the town of, 519.
- Pennant the Tourist, quoted, 107, 148.
- Pensioner, his account of himself and the Highlands, 512.
- Perth, the town of, petition Lord Drummond, 52.
- Pentland Frith, 6.
- Picts, 15, 16.
- Pinkerton, his misrepresentation of the Highland character, 207.
- Pisquata, severe duty of the Highlanders at, 390.
- Plaid, belted, 79.