Note and Comment

The eLafs gained 63 points on the Husslers yesterday. Two more day like that and McCaffery's boys will lead the league. We are now only 3½ games behind, and, as Burke will work for Montreal to-day. Rochester is likely to lose four straight. Even if Toronto drops the final in Buffalo, the chances look bright to go up on top before Saturday night.
Great is Joe Kelley as manager from the grand stand, but greater in this hour of triumph is the president.

Olympic Champions Coming.

There will be a great array of Olympic champions at the Eaton A.A. meet on Saturday, June 10. First, there is our own Bobbie Kerr, who won the 220 yards championship: then comes Mel. Sheppard, who won the mile race; Geo. Larner, who won the walking race, and Geo. V. Bonhag, who won the Olympic championship walk at Athens.

Bonhag quit walking after he won the championship at Athens, and took up the running game, and now holds all the world's indoor records from two to ten miles. He is entered in the three-mile handicap run, and in a letter to the secretary of the Eaton Association, states that he is in splendid condition and expects to give a good account of himself in this race.
