Sharp Break in Wheat Values
Northwest Markets in the LeadDiscouraging News From Abroad and Depression on Wall St. Lead to Decline at Chicago—Corn and Oats Easier.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—After the New York stock market became demoralized to-day, big traders here began selling wheat which they had bought yesterday. Largely as a result, the close was at a decline of 1 to 1.50 under last night. Corn showed a net loss of 1.50 to 1.75, oats were down 1.50 to 1.75, and provisions lower by 1.50 to 1.75. The professional speculator of the larger market made a stiff fight for higher prices on wheat and seemed in a fair way to succeed until Wall-street quotations gave signs of collapse. The unsettled conditions in the stock market, however, proved too heavy a burden on the grain bulls, and there was a rather sharp setback from which no important rally took place. Not all of the shrinkage in wheat values, nevertheless, could be fairly charged to the financial situation. Almost from the start the tone in the pit here was depressed. Liberal receipts in the north-west formed one reason. Another was that the demand which had been temporarily stimulated by the collapse of the stock market, had become flat again. In addition, the United Kingdom wheat crop exhibited a decided gain over last year and there were estimates of a record-breaking acreage in Argentina. Under such circumstances, it was not to be wondered that the market in wheat and corn fell to a level, not that final sales were nearly the lowest figures for the season. The range for December was from 71.50 to 73.50, but the close was at 71.50 to 73.50.

Corn showed weakness. Corn lost support, following the break in wheat. Forecasts of colder weather had also a bearing effect. The market for corn was rather flat, but the close was at 71.50 to 73.50. The close was at 71.50 to 73.50.

Good buying on the part of cash concerns and elevators prevented oats from displaying as much weakness as wheat or corn. The movement of the new crop seemed disappointingly slow. Top and bottom prices reached for the December option were 47.50 and 48.50, with the close at 47.50 to 48.50.

Provisions were weak in consequence of an important decline in the price of hogs at the yards. At the end of trading, pork had dropped 1.50 to 1.75, lard was down 1.50 to 1.75, and hams 1.50 to 1.75.

Northwest Receipts. Receipts of wheat at primary centers were as follows:

City	Wheat	Corn	Oats
Chicago	40,000	10,000	5,000
Winnipeg	20,000	5,000	2,000
Duluth	10,000	2,000	1,000
Minneapolis	5,000	1,000	500

European Markets. The Liverpool market closed to-day 1/4 to 1/2 higher than yesterday on wheat, and 1/4 to 1/2 higher on corn. Berlin closed higher, Antwerp unchanged, and Budapest 1/4 lower.
