Montreal Produce Market

Montreal, Feb. 3.—The local market for cash oats was fairly strong thruout 000,000 bushels of wheat in my country last week, and prices closed with a net gain of ½c to 1c per bushel. This was attributed to the steady demand for supplies for domestic consumption and for shipment to country points. A fairly week, and prices closed with a net waiting for tonnage. Reception at Belfast Does Not Promise Well for Solution of Irish Question.

WILL RESIGN SEAT

Will Run as Candidate for Working Class Constituency in Belfast.

Belfast, Feb. 3.—The series of recepons and ovations that Sir Edward H. Carson, leader of the Irish Unionist party, is receiving in Belfast does not ppear to promise well for a har-nonious solution of the Irish question in the near future. Sir Edward made speeches there yesterday and today, strongly declaring that he holds fast to the old pledges made to his constituents. Those pledges were to fight against home rule or a separation from the union of Great Britain to the last ditch

Sir Edward arrived in Belfast Thursday and was welcomed like a vic-torious general. He motored thru streets that were decorated in his honor and received a formal welcome from the mayor in behalf of Ulster's Unionist Council and an informal one from several thousand assembled per-

Sir Edward today conferred with the inionist Council, and it is understood, n order to identify himself more close-y with Ulster, he will resign his seat in the house of commons as the representative for Dublin University and run as a candidate for a working class constituency in Belfast.

In a speech before the Unionist Council yesterday Sir Edward Carson and that groupstances had arisen at said that circumstances had arisen at the Irish convention indicating the possibility of trouble over the steps the government should take if the convention should break down. If he remained in the government he would have to be a party to its deliberations and support any religing to describe the conventions. tions and support any policy it adopted. On the other hand, he was not free because of his pledges as a covenanter. It was plain that the conv having been set up and Ulster having entered it. the Ulsterites must remain to the end and consider every proposal with a view to seeing whether there could be a solution satisfactory to the people of Ulster.

Must Maintain Status.

"This," he described, "as one that would enable the people to feel that they still maintain their status as citizens of the British Empire and are protected in their business and daily lives against the possibility of harmful

He protested against any attempt to create an atmosphere that Ulster is unreasonable, declaring: "Ulster alone in Ireland has shown any reason at all. Some of our old friends and supporters, who are calling out for a settlement, really mean surrender. If by settlement people have in their minds surment people have in their minds surrender there will be no settlement.

"A greater insult could not be offered to a nation than is put forward and suggested that unless the Irish question is settled America will no longer go on with the war or will prosecute the war with less vigor. Anything more ridiculous or insulting it is imressible to conceive." America has possible to conceive." America has not come into the war, he said, simply to help Britain and out of friendship to Britain, but to fight for the same ideals of freedom and liberty, because she saw the world threatened by the domination of a military class.

Will Not Abandon War.

"To tell me that America with these high ideals and having abandoned her isolation to come into the European war was influenced by the Irish question is childish," h easserted. "So far from helping a settlement in Ulster
