Kelley Goes to Longboat Fails Hamilton to Boston :- Longboat to Toronto

At the Eastern League meeting in New York this week, among other news sent out was:
"Joe Kelley, who was drafted by the Boston Nationals, again took occasion to say that he would be in Toronto as man-Last night The World received the fol-lowing telegram, dated New York: "Kelley goes to the Boston Nationals as manager. "James J. McCaffery."

The annual intercollegiate athletic meet takes place to-day at Kingston, and Varsity should pretty nearly land the championship. The blue and white are unusually strong in the sprints, but in the field events are only fair. It is likely that some records will be broken to-day.

Montreal at Argonauts and Ottawa at Hamilton are the Senior Interprovincial Rugby games to-day, and on form Hamilton should defeat Ottawa, but, according to press reports from the capital, a man has been detailed to watch Southam. It is the intention of Ottawa to give the Tigers a rough game, so that in the return game at Ottawa on Saturday the Tigers will be a weak team, owing to men being injured. Argos will give Montreal a hard game, the easterners being minus Kelly and Kingstone, two of their wings. On the other hand, the scullers will be minus their captain and halfback, Pete Flett, who has a paralyzed nerve in his kicking foot. His place will be taken by that good boy Meredith.

DEER HUNTING. DEER HUNTING.

The popen season for big game begins to-morrow, and already hundreds of hunters have taken to the woods armed with high power death-dealing rifles. The note of warning has been sounded year after year by the press, but each succeeding year brings forth the usual number of accidents. No doubt some of the accidents in the past might have happened to the unfortunate victims had they been hunting in the smaller woods near the front, but many of them have been caused thru gross carelessness. There is no ex-wounded man.

The only remedy, or, at least what looks like the most effective remedy for the evil, appears to be the removal of dogs from the sport, for, when placed on their own resources in the bush, where they would hate to still-hunt, the dangerous sportsman or would-be sportsman would remain at home.

The will be offered.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Notwithstanding all the rumblings of discontent which have been heard the last three days, while the representatives of the minor baseball league organizations have been in session here, there will be no upleaval in or disintegration of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues.

The annual meeting of this organization, which comprises all the baseball interests in the United States and Canada, outside of the two major leagues, will not end until Friday. of the two major leagues, will not end antil Friday.

President P. T. Powers of the National President P. T. Powers of the National Association called its second day's meeting to order to-day at the Fifth-avenue Hotel, and after a four-hour session adjournment, was taken until to-morrow morning.

Twenty-three of the thirty-six leagues

Twenty-three of the thirty-six leagues in the association were personally represented. J. D. O'Brien of Milwaukee, president of the American Association, submitted two resolutions, which were adopted, at a conference held in Chicago last Sunday. These were that the Picific Coast, the Seuthern and the Western Leagues be reduced from Class A to Class B organizations, and trat the Inational Board be reduced from seven to five members. Both resolution saking that all future meetings of the National Association be held in Chicago, was adopted to the extent that next year's meeting will be held there.

Induce McCredie of Portland, Oregon, ed to the extent that next year's meeting will be held there.

Judge McCredie of Portland, Oregon, invited the association to meet in Seattle in 1909, and J. Cale Wing, the newly elected president of the Pacific Ceast League, invited it to meet in San Francisco that year and then go to Seattle as guests of the Pacific Coast League.

front, but many of them have been caused thru gross carelessness. There is no excuse for a hunter mistaking a man for a deer, and anyone doing so should be severely dealt with, and unless penalties are inflicted on such we are sure to have frightful results.

Many so-called hunters have a rifle in their hands for but two weeks in each year—Nov. 1 to 15—and know very little about the use of firearms, and less about the use of firearms, and less about the sport they are going into. Few ever were resorted to guide, contenting themselves with allowing the guide to place them on a runway, where they remain until lifted by the guide later on. It is from this class of hunter, more than any other, that man is shot for a deer. They see something move in or behind a thicket, shoot, and then look afterward—result, dead or wounded man.

somewhat more effectively, tho at that the tackling of both teams was well nigh perfect and time and time again players left their feet to get their man. Winstanley, the Saints centre half, played superbly all thru the game, and was to no small degree responsible for U.C.C.'s defeat. DeGruchy, the Upper Canada College captain and centre half, starred for his team, accomplishing among other the dropping of a goal from the field on a penalty kick. Winstanley went over for both of St. Andrew's tries. There was hardly a breath of wind stirring and tho the Saints won the toss it did them little good, apart from having the sun at their back in the first quarter.

U.C.C. might have pulled out a victory had they kicked more during the first half, as they came very strong towards the end of the game, when more open tactics were resorted to. Galliher did magnificent work at outside wing for U.C.C. The losers came near pulling the match out of the fire in the last minute of eplay, scoring a
