

Saturday, Feb. 22.

Our Sale

in our lists from began. But we make for men who Monday will be seamless, double 35c, Hosiery Sale 19c

plain and ribbed and 45c, Hosiery 25c

se, black with red, 3 for $1.00

embroidered, plaids, 25c, Hosiery Sale 15c

black, also colors, 25c

and plaids; regu- 25c

black and colors, 25c

stripes and checks; 29c

Ribbed Hose, full- 29c

ular 40c and 50c, 29c

1854

General Banking and Compound

ul. Compound

very Saturday Night

T. ST. BATHURST ST. AGES

I's LIQUID GLUE

ON OF THE TOWNSHIP OF YORK.

by given that the Muni- of the Corporation of the Rotterdam, the 2410 ton steamer of the Rotterdam line, proved a failure.

The liner refused to take the water, owing to the tremendous pressure on the ways, which had not been properly greased.

The launching has now been postponed for a fortnight, 300 men in the meantime being employed to watch the vessel for fear of accident.

LAUNCH AT BELFAST FAILED.

Rotterdam Refused to Run Down the Ways.

BELFAST, Ireland, Feb. 23.—The attempt made to-day to launch the Rotterdam, the 2410 ton steamer of the Rotterdam line, proved a failure.

The liner refused to take the water, owing to the tremendous pressure on the ways, which had not been properly greased.

The launching has now been postponed for a fortnight, 300 men in the meantime being employed to watch the vessel for fear of accident.

LAUNCH AT BELFAST FAILED.

Rotterdam Refused to Run Down the Ways.

BELFAST, Ireland, Feb. 23.—The attempt made to-day to launch the Rotterdam, the 2410 ton steamer of the Rotterdam line, proved a failure.

The liner refused to take the water, owing to the tremendous pressure on the ways, which had not been properly greased.

The launching has now been postponed for a fortnight, 300 men in the meantime being employed to watch the vessel for fear of accident.

LAUNCH AT BELFAST FAILED.

Rotterdam Refused to Run Down the Ways.

"FRONT AND YONGE"

5600 square feet of 12-ft. basement for rent, freight and passenger facilities, first-class shipping facilities, steam heat, immediate possession.

H. H. WILLIAMS & CO., Realty Brokers - 28 Victoria

PROBS—Fine; not much change

PRIEST SHOT BY ANARCHIST AT THE ALTAR

Muzzle Pressed Against His Body as Man Was Receiving Sacrament at the Altar.

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 21.—Father Leo Heinrich was shot and killed to-day by Alno Guiseppe, an avowed anarchist and priest hater, while the priest was administering the sacrament at the early mass in St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic Church.

Kneeling at the altar rail between two women, Guiseppe pressed the muzzle of a revolver against the body of the priest, after receiving from him the consecrated wafer, and shot the priest thru the heart.

Exclaiming "My God, my God," Father Leo fell prone in front of the altar and died.

With an inarticulate scream, the assassin sprang into the aisle and waving the smoking pistol about his head dashed to the church door. For a moment the hundred or more persons in the church were dazed. Then a woman shrieked and the congregation became panic-stricken. Several women fainted and many others became hysterical. Several men, including Patrolman Daniel Cronin, started in pursuit of the murderer. Policeman Cronin overtook the fleeing Italian on the church steps.

Guiseppe attempted to shoot the policeman, but was foiled and overpowered after a desperate struggle, in which several men assisted the officer.

Vengeance Threatened.

The murderer was hurriedly removed to the city jail. At the scene of the murder, several men were seen to be in front of the church, Chief of Police Michael Delaney called out the reserve force of patrolmen, who were kept on guard all day and to-night.

Before the commotion caused by the tragedy subsided, the Franciscan brothers connected with the St. Elizabeth's Church silently brought candles for the dead and placed them beside the body of the priest, who lay on the floor. By direction of Bishop Matz the church was closed for the day.

A single bullet hole in the white communion robes of the priest showed that the lead had gone straight to the heart. The bullets remaining in Guiseppe's revolver had sharpened points.

Grudge Against Priests.

Guiseppe was placed in solitary confinement. He admitted the police man that the priest who he had killed was a stranger to him, and in explanation of his crime, said:

"I just went over there because I have a grudge against all priests in general. They are all against the workmen. I went to the communion rail because I could get a better shot. I did not give a blank whether he was a German priest or any other kind of a priest. I am all in the same class."

"I left Italy three months ago, and went first to Central America and then came to Denver. I am an anarchist and I am proud of it. I shot him, and my only regret is that I could not shoot the whole bunch of them."

Father Leo was born in Koeln, Germany, Aug. 15, 1857. He was a Franciscan, and came here last September from Paterson, N.J., where for three years he was rector of St. Bonaventure. He had previously served three years in Croghan, N.Y. He had been planning to sail for Germany in June to visit relatives, whom he had not seen for 15 years.

LAUNCH AT BELFAST FAILED.

Rotterdam Refused to Run Down the Ways.

BELFAST, Ireland, Feb. 23.—The attempt made to-day to launch the Rotterdam, the 2410 ton steamer of the Rotterdam line, proved a failure.

The liner refused to take the water, owing to the tremendous pressure on the ways, which had not been properly greased.

The launching has now been postponed for a fortnight, 300 men in the meantime being employed to watch the vessel for fear of accident.

LAUNCH AT BELFAST FAILED.

Rotterdam Refused to Run Down the Ways.

BELFAST, Ireland, Feb. 23.—The attempt made to-day to launch the Rotterdam, the 2410 ton steamer of the Rotterdam line, proved a failure.

The liner refused to take the water, owing to the tremendous pressure on the ways, which had not been properly greased.

The launching has now been postponed for a fortnight, 300 men in the meantime being employed to watch the vessel for fear of accident.

LAUNCH AT BELFAST FAILED.

Rotterdam Refused to Run Down the Ways.

BELFAST, Ireland, Feb. 23.—The attempt made to-day to launch the Rotterdam, the 2410 ton steamer of the Rotterdam line, proved a failure.

HEARST'S NEW PLATFORM

To restore the power of government to the people, to make their will supreme in the primaries, in the elections and in the control of public officials after they have been elected.

To destroy the power of selfish special interests by wresting from their hands their main weapon, the corruption fund, and by preventing absolutely the use of any money at elections except for literature, for meetings and for legitimate appeals to the intelligence and patriotism of the voter.

To correct some of the obvious financial and economic evils of the day, to promote not only the creation of wealth but a more just and equal distribution of wealth, and to prevent the interruption of the mighty march of national progress and prosperity by the criminal methods of the highwaymen of high finance.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

To frame certain schemes of constructive legislation to develop the resources of our great country, to increase national and international facilities for trade and commerce, to restore confidence and employment, and to encourage all legitimate business enterprises.

HEARST LAUNCHES BRAND-NEW PARTY

Aims to Go Back to the Old American Ideals, Free From Bossism—His Platform.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—Steps for the formation of a new national political party were taken at a conference of the Independence League Saturday.

The action followed a short speech by William Randolph Hearst, enunciating the principles of the league, and the adoption of a "declaration of principles" setting forth the object of the organization and the means by which it hopes to attain them.

The provisional national committee of which Mr. Hearst is chairman was authorized to call a national convention to nominate candidates for the presidency and the vice-presidency after the Republican and Democratic parties have held their gatherings in Chicago and Denver, respectively.

The platform was reported by Clarence J. Shearn of New York, chairman of a committee appointed in September, 1907, to formulate the documents.

The objects of the Independence League are to conserve for the citizens of the United States the rights and liberties won for them by the founders of this government, says the platform, and to perpetuate the principles and policies upon which the nation's greatness has been built.

Cardinal Principles Enumerated.

The cardinal principles enumerated in the declaration are:

Direct nomination by the people of all candidates for office. This, it is declared, will eliminate bossism in politics, literature, etc.

Legislation against corrupt practices at elections, including the prohibition of the use of money except for hall rent, literature, etc.

The election of United States senators and judges by the people.

The application of the principle of the referendum to national, state and municipal government, no franchise grant to be given unless approved by the people.

The right of the people to recall public officials from public service.

The extension of the principle of public ownership of public utilities to the national field as fast as the government demonstrates its ability to operate them. The immediate government ownership of the telegraph lines is advocated.

Overcapitalization of corporations is denounced as being as harmful as the dishonesty of the stock market.

Emergency currency shall be issued only by the government.

Eight Hour Day; Better Wages.

An eight-hour day for non-union workers. Better wages for public employees.

The stamping out of child labor by the national government.

Trials by jury for persons charged with contempt of court.

Law making blacking illegal.

An interstate commerce court to enforce the rulings of the interstate commerce commission.

State and national incorporation laws and the application of the prison penalties of anti-trust laws.

The revision of the tariff, "not by the friends of the tariff but by the friends of the people."

A ship subsidy for the development of commerce.

Improved waterways and the ship canal from Chicago to the Gulf.

Navigating routes called on every member of the executive to get ready to preserve Toronto for the good old Conservative party.

It is the intention to hold meetings of the executive every two weeks to receive reports of the work done, and to state the financial condition of the organization already at work in the city. This is to be followed by similar banquets in each ward association. Following this Claude Macdonell, M.P., and Edmund Bristol, M.P., will hold a series of meetings in all parts of the city at which the doings at Ottawa will be freely aired, and each member will give an account of his stewardship.

Hon. J. J. Poy reviewed the work of the past presidents of the Ward Association, and predicted for the splendid organization another big victory when the time came. There might be two elections this year, and he believed that the province, satisfied with the record of Premier Whitney, would return him to power with a very big majority.

"The eyes of the Dominion," said A. Claude Macdonell, "were on the men for Toronto—Mr. Osler, Mr. Kemp and Mr. Foster. They were the three whom Mr. Borden turned for advice, and Toronto should be proud of their record."

W. K. McNaught, M.L.A., said that the new redistribution bill had been introduced, and the feature would be that each Toronto constituency would have two members for the local house. The aim of every Conservative should be to return two Conservatives in each riding to support Mr. Whitney.

Neibitt Redivivus.

With none of his old-time vigor abated, Dr. Beattie Neibitt spoke strongly on the criticisms which had been forthcoming on the conduct of the ward associations. In his opinion, the officers and members of the executive of each ward represented the rank and file of the party, and it was the ward associations that had selected and elected the present members. "Whatever differences there had been in the past, all were to be buried now, and each Conservative was to stand shoulder to shoulder to win the coming elections."

E. J. W. Owens congratulated the gathering on the excellent organization. He predicted if the work was done Toronto would go solid Conservative.

Brief addresses were given by S. W. McKee, Reginald Geary, S. W. Burns, Dr. Ryerson, John Laxton, Secretary Shone and Capt. Worrell.

OLD MAN ONTARIO: Stole your Law Reform overcoat, did they? Well, Aleck, it's hard luck for you they didn't take the rest of the suit.

CONSERVATIVES BEGIN TO TALK OF CAMPAIGN MEETINGS ARE PLANNED

Third Ward Association Executive Start the Ball A Rolling and Will Work on Method.

The call to arms was sounded in the Conservative camp on Saturday night, when Thos. Hook, president of the Third Ward Association, presided at a banquet at the St. Charles Hotel, at which were present upwards of sixty members of the executive, the members of the different wards and other stalwarts. It was a great success.

The plans evolved by Mr. Hook for campaign work in the coming battles, for he predicted that both the federal elections and the Ontario would be on this year, were outlined in a stirring address, in which he urged that no time be lost in getting the best organization into the field, and called on every member of the executive to get ready to preserve Toronto for the good old Conservative party.

It is the intention to hold meetings of the executive every two weeks to receive reports of the work done, and to state the financial condition of the organization already at work in the city. This is to be followed by similar banquets in each ward association. Following this Claude Macdonell, M.P., and Edmund Bristol, M.P., will hold a series of meetings in all parts of the city at which the doings at Ottawa will be freely aired, and each member will give an account of his stewardship.

Hon. J. J. Poy reviewed the work of the past presidents of the Ward Association, and predicted for the splendid organization another big victory when the time came. There might be two elections this year, and he believed that the province, satisfied with the record of Premier Whitney, would return him to power with a very big majority.

"The eyes of the Dominion," said A. Claude Macdonell, "were on the men for Toronto—Mr. Osler, Mr. Kemp and Mr. Foster. They were the three whom Mr. Borden turned for advice, and Toronto should be proud of their record."

W. K. McNaught, M.L.A., said that the new redistribution bill had been introduced, and the feature would be that each Toronto constituency would have two members for the local house. The aim of every Conservative should be to return two Conservatives in each riding to support Mr. Whitney.

Neibitt Redivivus.

With none of his old-time vigor abated, Dr. Beattie Neibitt spoke strongly on the criticisms which had been forthcoming on the conduct of the ward associations. In his opinion, the officers and members of the executive of each ward represented the rank and file of the party, and it was the ward associations that had selected and elected the present members. "Whatever differences there had been in the past, all were to be buried now, and each Conservative was to stand shoulder to shoulder to win the coming elections."

E. J. W. Owens congratulated the gathering on the excellent organization. He predicted if the work was done Toronto would go solid Conservative.

Brief addresses were given by S. W. McKee, Reginald Geary, S. W. Burns, Dr. Ryerson, John Laxton, Secretary Shone and Capt. Worrell.

Neibitt Redivivus.

With none of his old-time vigor abated, Dr. Beattie Neibitt spoke strongly on the criticisms which had been forthcoming on the conduct of the ward associations. In his opinion, the officers and members of the executive of each ward represented the rank and file of the party, and it was the ward associations that had selected and elected the present members. "Whatever differences there had been in the past, all were to be buried now, and each Conservative was to stand shoulder to shoulder to win the coming elections."

E. J. W. Owens congratulated the gathering on the excellent organization. He predicted if the work was done Toronto would go solid Conservative.

Brief addresses were given by S. W. McKee, Reginald Geary, S. W. Burns, Dr. Ryerson, John Laxton, Secretary Shone and Capt. Worrell.

Neibitt Redivivus.

With none of his old-time vigor abated, Dr. Beattie Neibitt spoke strongly on the criticisms which had been forthcoming on the conduct of the ward associations. In his opinion, the officers and members of the executive of each ward represented the rank and file of the party, and it was the ward associations that had selected and elected the present members. "Whatever differences there had been in the past, all were to be buried now, and each Conservative was to stand shoulder to shoulder to win the coming elections."

E. J. W. Owens congratulated the gathering on the excellent organization. He predicted if the work was done Toronto would go solid Conservative.

Brief addresses were given by S. W. McKee, Reginald Geary, S. W. Burns, Dr. Ryerson, John Laxton, Secretary Shone and Capt. Worrell.

Neibitt Redivivus.

With none of his old-time vigor abated, Dr. Beattie Neibitt spoke strongly on the criticisms which had been forthcoming on the conduct of the ward associations. In his opinion, the officers and members of the executive of each ward represented the rank and file of the party, and it was the ward associations that had selected and elected the present members. "Whatever differences there had been in the past, all were to be buried now, and each Conservative was to stand shoulder to shoulder to win the coming elections."

THOSE CLOTHES.

OLD MAN ONTARIO: Stole your Law Reform overcoat, did they? Well, Aleck, it's hard luck for you they didn't take the rest of the suit.

CONSERVATIVES BEGIN TO TALK OF CAMPAIGN MEETINGS ARE PLANNED

Third Ward Association Executive Start the Ball A Rolling and Will Work on Method.

The call to arms was sounded in the Conservative camp on Saturday night, when Thos. Hook, president of the Third Ward Association, presided at a banquet at the St. Charles Hotel, at which were present upwards of sixty members of the executive, the members of the different wards and other stalwarts. It was a great success.

The plans evolved by Mr. Hook for campaign work in the coming battles, for he predicted that both the federal elections and the Ontario would be on this year, were outlined in a stirring address, in which he urged that no time be lost in getting the best organization into the field, and called on every member of the executive to get ready to preserve Toronto for the good old Conservative party.

It is the intention to hold meetings of the executive every two weeks to receive reports of the work done, and to state the financial condition of the organization already at work in the city. This is to be followed by similar banquets in each ward association. Following this Claude Macdonell, M.P., and Edmund Bristol, M.P., will hold a series of meetings in all parts of the city at which the doings at Ottawa will be freely aired, and each member will give an account of his stewardship.

Hon. J. J. Poy reviewed the work of the past presidents of the Ward Association, and predicted for the splendid organization another big victory when the time came. There might be two elections this year, and he believed that the province, satisfied with the record of Premier Whitney, would return him to power with a very big majority.

"The eyes of the Dominion," said A. Claude Macdonell, "were on the men for Toronto—Mr. Osler, Mr. Kemp and Mr. Foster. They were the three whom Mr. Borden turned for advice, and Toronto should be proud of their record."

W. K. McNaught, M.L.A., said that the new redistribution bill had been introduced, and the feature would be that each Toronto constituency would have two members for the local house. The aim of every Conservative should be to return two Conservatives in each riding to support Mr. Whitney.

Neibitt Redivivus.

With none of his old-time vigor abated, Dr. Beattie Neibitt spoke strongly on the criticisms which had been forthcoming on the conduct of the ward associations. In his opinion, the officers and members of the executive of each ward represented the rank and file of the party, and it was the ward associations that had selected and elected the present members. "Whatever differences there had been in the past, all were to be buried now, and each Conservative was to stand shoulder to shoulder to win the coming elections."

E. J. W.