WILL NOT TALK FOSTER SHAW LAYS DOWN RULE

Liberal Candidates in North and Centre Toronto Address Rather Slimly Attended Meetings.

"My love is young and fair, My love has golden hair," sang the quartet at T. G. Robinette's meeting in Guild Hall last night. They did not stop there, but proceeded to chant "Vote for Robinette and there'll be a hot time in the old town that night." P. C. Larkin presided over the 250 persons who were present and had an easy job.

Mr. Shaw, who had to leave for another meeting, was the first speaker, and he expressed his admiration for and confidence in the Laurier government. As he concluded his remarks the audience asked him if he was prepared to say anything about Mr. Foster's past.

"No," he replied. "I believe politics is too noble a game to indulge in dirty personalities. If I cannot win North Toronto on my honor and good name as a citizen I don't want it. My position is this: I do not believe it is the duty of any man who is seeking the suffrage of his fellow men to try to secure that suffrage by harrasing his fellow men. If a public man sins, his sins will find him out without my shouting it from the housetops. I have not mentioned the name of my opponent on a single platform in this city and I am not going to do it."

Dr. J. E. Elliott thought Toronto had not had the attention the city should have had and a Liberal member would have influence in getting further benefits.

An elector interrupted to ask if Sir Wilfrid had neglected Toronto because a Liberal member was not returned. Dr. Elliott did not think so, but as Sir Wilfrid was going to be returned it would be well to have a representative.

T. C. Robinette recalled his old military experiences with Dr. no Lieut. Col. Elliott of the Army Medical Service. The true record of the Liberal party, cleared of the cloud of scandal hanging over it, was what he desired of wrongdoers. No charge had been proven against any member of the Laurier government, and he challenged any Conservative to deny it. Mr. Robinette admitted that the G.T.P. Railway was costing a little more than had been anticipated, but so long as the money was going into the pockets of the people of Canada no one could object to this. All that Mr. Foster could question in the Liberal expenditures was $1,300,000, and only a percentage of this, out of $300,000,000 handled by the Liberal government since 1896. This meant that only $1.50 in every $500 was questioned. If they were laying a sidewalk on McGill-street costing $800 and got value for everything but $1.50 none of them would seriously object. Mr. Robinette expressed the belief that letter carriers should have $1.75 or $2 a day, and whether elected or not he would try to have their wages raised to that standard.

Mr. Robinette referred respectfully to the late E. F. Clarke in the contest with whom he polled 4000 votes. He was satisfied his organization would give him that 4000 again, but he wanted 1000 more. He wished to be returned as a supporter of the government.

which was a business government and safe and sane. Mr. Robinette appealed to the memories of Beaconsfield, Gladstone, Chamberlain, Geo. Brown, William Lyon Mackenzie and Sir John A. Macdonald as men of destiny with whom he ranked Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He could not understand how a young man could be anything but a Liberal and a supporter of Sir Wilfrid.

L. V. McBrady insinuated that Conservatives were using illegal means to win Centre Toronto. "If they leave conditions as they are," he asserted, "without any bribery or graft, a Liberal will be elected."

He anticipated a majority of 400 for Mr. Robinette in Centre Toronto, and if every Liberal voted right Mr. Shaw would be returned in the north.

AN INVASION OF CHINA.

Deluge of Missionaries and New Ideas Perplex the Natives.

E. A. Bevis, who has spent eleven years amongst the heathen of Honan, China, addressed the annual meeting of the China Inland Mission in Central Presbyterian Church yesterday afternoon.

He portrayed the average Chinaman as a most bewildered peasant at the present time. Up until very recent years, the belief had been that Honan, which is the centre of the Chinese Empire, was likewise the centre of the universe; when, almost as sudden as a clap of thunder, an avalanche of missionaries of all creeds had flooded the land.

Yet with all the bewildering, and his long cherished faith, the speaker deemed the time opportune for speedy evangelization of the Central China natives, and urged a supreme effort on the part of all Christian missionary societies in this direction during the coming year.

In the evening Rev. Dr. Elmore presided and the attendance was very large. The speakers were Miss Helen Reikie and Miss Charlotte Varcoe, departing missionaries; Mrs. A. J. Schaffly, returned missionary, and Rev. W. J. Doherty.

Mrs. Schaffly spoke, especially on the need for missionaries. In one Chinese city of 100,000 there was only one missionary. The prayers of congregations for the missionaries and converted natives were greatly desired.

Day's Doings in YORK COUNTY

CAMPAIN IS NOW ON IN CENTRE YORK

Rival Candidates Will Hold a Number of Meetings—News From the Suburbs.

WESTON, Oct. 16.—(Special).—The Conservative campaign in Centre York in the interests of Capt. Tom Wallace was opened in Dufferin Hall here to-night with a big rally of supporters and townspeople generally.

Capt. Wallace was accorded an ovation, and all the speakers were given an attentive and enthusiastic hearing and reception. The speakers were: Editor Evening Telegram; Hon. James Duff, Mayor Baird and Capt. Wallace were the speakers. Provincial William Wilby of Weston, Conservative Association presided.

"I will be no mere voting machine. I will follow no leader blindly," said the candidate, but will be guided wholly by what I believe to be in the best interest of the people generally," and the audience applauded the sentiment to the echo. The great issue before the people is common honesty," was another statement which caught with the crowd. The candidate concluded a rattling ten minutes address with a strong appeal for support, which, judging from the hearty applause, will surely be forthcoming on Oct. 26.

Mayor Baird touched briefly on political matters in general, and was accorded a fine reception. "On every hand we hear the most optimistic reports," said the mayor, which surely presage the triumphant return of the Conservative party, and Centre York would be in line.

"In Capt. Tom Wallace, the sturdy young Canadian, I see reproduced the son of the unconquerable friend of provincial rights, and of national schools, the late N. Clark, who," said John R. Robinson, Dealing with local matters the speaker captured the audience with his references to local Weston celebrities in the realm of lacrosse and his reference to Fred Rowntree, the great exponent of good lacrosse, evoked a volley of cheers.

Dealing with Dominion matters he charged that $3,000,000 of public money had been diverted into the pockets of Cox, Jaffray and others in the Crown's Pass Nest Coal lands. He made a reference to the action of the Laurier government in the recent appointment of Hon. J. M. Gibson, and deprecatingly with the elevation of K. Kerr and Archie Campbell to the Chagrin, who, the speaker charged, had shown at times an element of independence.

The member for South York, W. F. Maclean, was referred to as "the unprincipled and unscrupulous advocate of local ownership, and the one who had first blazed the trail in that direction."

"Tom Wallace," said Mr. Robinson, "stands for public ownership, provincial rights, national schools, cheap power and the like. He is the real Lean stands for Laurierism in the real world. Hon. James Duff, who met with a rousing reception, spoke at some length on the relative cost of Davenport-road, a ment between the present and late government, greatly to the advantage of the Conservative party."

Charles Leslie, baritone of Toronto, contributed a number of solos; the accompaniment was by Mrs. Nelson McEwen of Weston. Both were loudly acclaimed.

CONCORD. Vaughan Farmer Has Run of Bad Luck.

PICKERING, Oct. 16.—John Cowan of Oshawa has presented to the George's Church here with money for a new residence. Wm. Sparks has opened the buckwheat market here at 55 cents per bushel. The grain is coming in slowly and is being received at the Spink elevators.

HOLLAND FANDING. Conservative Candidate Gets Rousing Reception.

HOLLAND LANDING, Oct. 16.—The mass meeting held in the interest of John M. Armstrong, the Conservative candidate in North York, here last night was large and enthusiastic. Mr. Armstrong, K.C., T. H. Lennox, M.L.A., Mr. Cronner, K.C., and E. C. Brown, police magistrate of Cobalt, were the speakers, and all were cheered to the echo. Reeve Armstrong is making a splendid canvass and it is regarded as probable that he will redeem the riding.

THORNHILL. The nomination for candidates in the Centre York riding will take place at the skating rink here on Monday, Oct. 19, from 2 o'clock. It is reported that the executive of the rink and the skating association have leased Victoria Hall and the Liberals the skating rink.

The case against Harry Vanzyle, proprietor of the Alabama restaurant, Dundas-street, was proceeded with a number of bottles which the defendant admitted contained beer. He was vigorously cross-examined, the object being apparently to prove that many of the bottles were filled with a non-intoxicating ale. Owing to the absence of two important witnesses, Mr. Anderson asked for an adjournment until Friday, which was granted. When the case against Harry Vanzyle, proprietor of the Avenue Hotel, was taken up, Mr. Vanzyle's defence admitted that a test of elder taken from a kee on Leahy premises showed more alcohol than is permitted by law.
