

careful examination of the building, the inmates and their progress, the examiners can conscientiously place the seal of their approval upon the work of an institution that deserves the hearty co-operation of the people not only in this city, but in the Dominion.

The examination closed with short but encouraging addresses from the Rev. Mr. Mowatt and Rev. Mr. Kittson, the benediction with closing prayer by Rev. Mr. Bushell.

A refreshing lunch and a most pleasant interview with the teachers and directors of the Institute ended a visit that was delightful to all present.

HENRY KITTSON, M.A.
