

WILLIAM CLOW

---

Mr. Wm. Clow, proprietor of the great Jewell & Clow Restaurant, Colborne St., Toronto, was the originator of the dog swimming contests in this country. He is also owner of the famous bitch "Jessie" the champion swimmer of America. She has met and defeated all the crack dogs of the province, has given liberal handicaps to a score of other dogs and won, and has also met and defeated such famous swimmers as Captain Williams the Maltese, champion Nurse and others. Snipe out of Jessie is almost as good as his mother and had no difficulty in swimming away from all competitors during the season of 1884.
