 It is said that a erable sum from

"the sale of property in the old Provinces, have come with means to us.
 "Farmers doing this, I presume, usually have several sons for whom "they take free homesteads in our West. By the time they have built "houses on these and stocked their farms at an expense unknown in "Ontario, probably few of them have for a year or two any spare money.
 "It is said too, that many earnest Churchmen of means have left "parishes in the old Provinces west, who should enable us to get on "very well for ourselves. We should be glad to be furnished with the "names of such Churchmen. . . . . As a fact most of our immigrants "have little or no capital left after they arrive here, and lay out two or "three hundred dollars in necessities."

It is clear that if the Church of England does not come forward liberally at this juncture she will lose for ever the honor that now awaits her of being the Church in that country. On this point we quote the words of one not of us, and which will be taken as an impartial judgment. The author of "From Ocean to Ocean," thus writes:
 "The duty that now devolves upon the Episcopal Church in Canada
 "is to follow up its own children settling all over the North-West, and "to give them the form of service to which they are so profoundly "attached. . . . . If they neglect the duty of the present they can "never occupy hereafter the position in the North-West to which they "are historically entitled."

Most earnestly therefore we commend the work before us in Algoma and the North-West to the hearty support of the Churchmen and the Churchwomen of the Diocese, trusting that every Parish will make towards it a yearly contribution. In enriching others, we enrich ourselves, for he that watereth shall be watered also himself.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. DEVEBER,
 T. B. ROBINSON.
