F. L. POTTS, Auctioneer.

It was just becoming dark then, and the crew of the boat pulled all that night. Towards morning the wind freshened and blew them out of their course. They pulled all that day and had a pair of trousers and a large piece of oilskin fastened to two oars to attract attention.

Once a vessel was sighted, and once a group of mine-sweepers, but they passed out of sight. At night the weather became calm and fine and through that night they pulled until daybreak. At 10.30 in the morning they found a buoy and made fast to it. By the afternoon they were sighted and rescued.

The following honors for service in action with enemy submarines are gazetted:

Victoria Crosses—Lieutenant Charles George Bonner; Petty Officer Ernest Fletcher. The latter was selected by the crew of the warship to receive the honor.

Second bar of Distinguished Service Order: Capt. Gordon Campbell, who already has the Victoria Cross. No details of the deeds for which Capt. Campbell was awarded the Victoria Cross or other honor have ever been published.

Mrs. A. Kirk, 58 Yorkville avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have tried and tested Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and have received good results, for which I am very thankful. I took them for liver trouble. I came out of the hospital on May 2nd, last, after having had a serious operation which might have been saved had I taken your pills sooner. I have given some to my sister for biliousness and sick headache, and she has found great relief. A lady who lives in my house has started to take them. I will do my best to recommend them to all my friends."

U.S. Senators Tour English Shipyards and Munition Plants

London, Nov. 8—Having completed a tour of the English shipyards, Senators Kenyon of Iowa and Hendrick of Wyoming went into conference with Vice-Admiral Sims, commander of the American destroyer squadron. After the conference Senator Kenyon said: "We are convinced destroyers are the best antidote for U-boats. We cannot have too many of them. The additional destroyers and the hundreds of thousands of tons of new shipping which England and the United States are turning out, will in time overcome the U-boat."

GREAT TRADITION STILL GOES ON

How Skipper Crisp Won The Victoria Cross

Sinking of the Nelson—"Tom, I'm Done; Throw Me Overboard," the Captain Calmly Ordered

London, Nov. 7—The London Gazette announces the award of the Victoria Cross to the late Skipper T. Crisp, Naval Reserve, of the smack Nelson, and the Distinguished Conduct Medal to his son. Following is the story of the sinking of the Nelson.

On an August afternoon, on or about a quarter to three, the trawl was shot from the smack Nelson and the smack was on port tack. The skipper was below packing fish and one hand was on deck cleaning fish for next morning's breakfast. Then the skipper came on deck and saw an object on the horizon. He examined it closely and sent for his glasses. Almost directly he sang out, "Clear for action; submarine!" and he had scarcely spoken when a shot fell about a hundred yards away on the port bow. The motorman got to his motor, the deckhand dropped his fish and went to the ammunition room. The other hands, at the skipper's orders, "Let go your gear," let go the warp.

Meanwhile the gun-layer held his fire until the skipper said, "It is no use waiting any longer. We will have to let them have it."

Away in the distance the submarine sent shell after shell at the smack, and about the fourth shot the shell went through the port bow just below the waterline, and then the skipper showed her around. There was no confusion aboard, not even when the seventh shell struck the skipper, passing through his side, through the neck, and out through the side of the ship. The second hand at once took charge of the tiller and firing continued all the time water was pouring into the ship and she

THERE IS NOTHING FOR THE LIVER SO GOOD AS MILBURN'S LAXA-LIVER PILLS

They will regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the bowels, and will tone, renovate, and purify the liver, remove every result of liver trouble from the temporary, but disagreeable bilious and sick headaches, to the severest forms of liver complaint.

They are small and easy-taking, do not grip, sicken or weaken like the old-fashioned, nauseating, griping purgatives.

Mrs. A. Kirk, 58 Yorkville avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I have tried and tested Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and have received good results, for which I am very thankful. I took them for liver trouble. I came out of the hospital on May 2nd, last, after having had a serious operation which might have been saved had I taken your pills sooner. I have given some to my sister for biliousness and sick headache, and she has found great relief. A lady who lives in my house has started to take them. I will do my best to recommend them to all my friends."
