TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

FANNIE WARD IN "WITCH-CRAFT" AND "BEATRICE

With crisp inviting winter weather, a big warm clean theatre and a splendid bill of motion pictures, the Imperial to night and all day Saturday will be a very attractive place to visit. Fannie, Ward, that talented and fluffy little star, will play the leading role, that of Suzette, the Huguenot befugee girl in the $10,000 prize story, "Witcheraft." As supposed, this story deals with Puritaincal times in New England and like "Maria Rosa" on Wednesday and Thursday is a high-class film fiction, picturesquely staged and costumed and wonderfully enacted. The guests at the hotel invited the mof of the Canadian boys serve their hosts aud received and recaded the extent of the usual week-end serial offering of the Mystery of Mimosa San, the Jap." This is a thrilling adventure with Harry Fox and Grace Darling in the heroic roles. A visit to Mount Hood in Oregon completes the bill.

The Russian order of five million shells had been completed, and between three and a half and four million shells had been shipped, and the balance stored awaiting ships. Mr. Skelton said that Russian agents had been negotiating for acquisition of the plant but he could not say whether the deal had been consummated or not.

My son is now sergeant in charge of recreation rooms in this centre, under millitary command and many of these are scattered through the city in church and other club rooms. In most of them and in many private houses Hastings and St. Leonard's devoted themselves that day to Canada. Among others at work here, I met H. B. Fairweather, son of Edgar H. Fairweather.

Christmas was a feast day everywhere among our Canadians. Before I left the 3rd C. S. Hospital I took part in the preparations for celebrating Christmas Day. Our officers arranged for a turkey dinner for 150 of our own, and fifty British attached men and the sisters were to dine with the effective control of the structure of the structure of the control of the c

WASHINGTON AND THE REPLY OF THE ALLIES

Washington, Jan. 12.- The allies' note Washington, Jan. 12.—The allies' note was discussed at the regular meeting of the cabinet and privately between the president and Secretary Lansing. All quarters agreed that while the Entente had made complete reply to the president's request for a statement of terms, the note seemed to offer no hope for an early end of the war but fortunately still did not close the door upon further effort on the president's part. Several effort on the president's part. Several courses of action lie before the president. Among them is another move to ask Germany to state specific terms as the Allies have done.
