For the last two weeks the members of the league have been working hard to get their field in time in the near future the managers and captains will hold a meeting to draw up the schedule and make final arrangements for opening the league on May 15.

Umpire Shot by Fan

Los Angeles, April 18.—Ed Monte and rindale baseball nines are hunting for an umpire. After an umpire has been chased out of yesterday's game, John Hayes, a rancher, undertook the position, and upon announcing his first decision, was shot twice in the breast by a spectator who had bet on Ed Monte. Hayes fled time, rushed upon his assailant and took away the weapon, with which he drove the man from the field. He then finished the game, but declined to officiate in any more. He is not dangerously hurt.

Johnnie Evers Injured

Troy, N. Y., April 19.—"Johnny" Evers, captain of the Boston Braves, was Nervous Prostration and Heart Troubles.

Nervous Prostration, or Neurasthenia, is one of the worst forms of nerve trouble and brings about a general weakness of the whole nervous system.

The symptoms presenting themselves are headache, a feeling of depression, listlessness and restlessness, unrefreshing sleep, often troubled with dreams, fright when in crowded places, dread of being alone, terror of society, fright at travelling, muscular weakness, sense of fatigue upon effort, etc.

When the nerves become affected in this way the heart generally becomes affected too.

All are curable if taken in time. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just what you require at this time. They strengthen the nerves and build up the whole system.

Mrs. John Hewson, Caladonia, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know the great benefit your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills did for me. I suffered for four years with heart trouble and nervous prostration. I was so bad I could not go out without sitting down at the top of the stairs without fainting. I could not sleep nor could I lie on my left side, for it would seem as if my heart would stop. I thought my time had come. I was doctoring with a doctor, but didn't get any benefit. Took eight boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and an enjoying good health."

Price, 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

was injured in the game in Boston Saturday, arrived at his home in Troy on Sunday. His physician found that Evers had sustained a severe strain of the ankle, and it may be two weeks before he can return to the game.

FOOTBALL

English Plans.

London, April 20.—The English Football Association has announced that with the close of the present season on May 5, no more professional football games will be played until after the war is ended. "It was necessary to finish the present season, even at a heavy loss," said the secretary of the association, "because of the existing contracts for players, grounds and other things which required an expenditure of $4,000,000. None of these contracts has been renewed for next year."

RING.

Simple About It.

Jess Willard likes to meet the fans and talk over his battle with Johnson and his rise in the game. When he is talking it is plain to see that he is sincere and not doing any "blowing." He talks about his career as a child would tell his mother of the things he had done during the day. So it is with him when he talks about his recent battle. Talking to some fans in New York the other day the champion said:

"O, I was too big and strong for Johnson! I was up in the air when the fight started because I had been told that Johnson would outbox me. I knew that I wasn't much of a boxer myself, but when Johnson began to puff himself up with his feinting and leading I thought I was up against it. But after he had punched me several times in the body I knew that he couldn't hurt me.

"See, I figured that Johnson wasn't it to go the full route of forty-five rounds, so I decided to play a waiting game. I felt sure that he would be tired after twenty or twenty-five rounds if I kept on the defensive. So I blocked his leads and made him discouraged. He had a hard time reaching my head and jaw, which made me sure that he couldn't score a knockout. "It was in the 24th round, I think, that I began to cut loose. Johnson was tired and he couldn't hit me as slow every minute and as soon as I began to punch him in the body he became so weak that he was not able to meet my ideas all the time to put him out with a straight right and when I did it over in the 30th round, he was too strong and too big for him. That's all there is to it."

Young Hacksmith Wins

Halifax Recorder.—A big crowd witnessed the boxing bout at the Bux Theatre Saturday night, between young Hacksmith of Philadelphia, and Jack Price of Springfield. The latter was outclassed in the third and fourth rounds. Price was punished severely and staggered around the ring. He said that he could not go any further, but if allowed to rest he would win. He was then carried out. Kid O'Neill who refereed was called on by the crowd to finish the exhibition, and although he had just recovered from an injury, he crowned the fight and he Hacksmith gave three fast rounds.

Note.—Hacksmith is well known in this city.

News of the Boxers.

Jack Curley figures that the seed of boxing has been so well planted in Havana by the Willard and Johnson scrap that another battle for a title would draw big money. He is planning to bring Mike Gibbons and Jimmy Clabby together here.

Jess Willard does not like the theatrical business. He talks about wanting to get back in the ring, but his managers see a golden harvest ahead for themselves as well as the champion. He is to get $15,000 for one week's work in an open-air park in Chicago.

Joe Azevedo has called off his mate, with Steve Ketchel, which was to take place in Memphis tonight.

Willie Lewis, who was a clever boxer, giving Al Rich instructions. He said Jimmy Clabby, who is one of the high priced ring stars, offers a good reason for making such demands for his services. He says:

"I wonder how many people stop to think what it means to become a champion—the road you must follow before you arrive! There's the start; the ridicule from promoters; the jibes from your friends; and worst of all, the extreme disfavor with which your 'prize fighting follies' is always regarded by the folks at home.

"You eat and sleep where you can—mostly you can't. Maybe your first fight will be a bloomer, because you not only lack experience, but a good start and potatoes the previous afternoon.

"Anyhow, after months of poverty, ridicule and discouragement, you get started, and for a year or two your face is changed by other boxers and you get, now and then, enough real money to barely keep you. I mean it as to the facial changes. People flatter me by saying 'Not even a scar!' and 'The game hasn't disfigured that boy!'"

A. I. Beakey, a fireman at Solomon, Kan., says that a thing saying that you did once you can do again. Because he once gave Willard a thrashing he thinks he can do so again, not figuring that Willard has been going about as a boxer while he has been standing still.

The affair happened in Willard's boyhood days in Emmett, Kan. Beakey and Willard had a scrap and Beakey says that he gave Willard a fine licking. Beakey is now looking for a backer to set him a match with Willard.
