> Woman Has Collar-Bone Broken In

MARS HILL, Me., Nov. 23.—A closed car driven by V. I. Beem, of Monticello, in which were Mrs. Beem and three small children, left the road last night, went through a fence and down a four-foot embankment and turned turtle with a fence rail driven through the top of the car and the front seat. The only occupant much hurt was Mrs. Beem, whose collar bone was fractured and who received cuts and bruises. The fence rail impaled the car between Mr. Beem and one of the children. The accident occurred by the car skidding on the snow while passing another care
