Church Has Large Lighted Cross

Cleveland, Oct. 20.—The Church of the Epiphany (Reformed Episcopal), 80th street and Euclid avenue, claims distinction for introducing a novel device in church advertising. A large electrically-lighted cross, mounted on top of the church, began to shed its beams upon the world's iniquity at 7:30 Sunday night when the new cross was dedicated. The cross is 10 feet high and six feet across. It is illuminated by 30 lights and revolves three times a minute. It will be lighted several hours every night. Rev. H. H. Trotter is pastor. 3671-10-21
