LOCAL NEWS

Special sale of Men's Pants tonight from 6 to 11. Corbett, 194 Union street. 11-26

Ladies' and girls' raincoats for the rainy season for your own price at Bassett's, 14, 16, 18 Charlotte street. 11-14

APPRECIATED GIFT. Your photograph as a Christmas gift will give more real pleasure to your relatives and friends than a more costly gift they cannot use. Let us have your photograph now. The Reid Studio, corner Charlotte and King streets. 11-13

NOTICE TO ST. JOHN LADIES. For the next week Miss Wilson, demonstrator for the Butterick Publishing Co., will be at Macaulay Bros. & Co., Ltd., taking subscriptions for the Demonstrator at half price. This is an excellent opportunity for you to give a practical Xmas gift that will be appreciated for 12 months.

The regular subscription price is $3.00 a year, but Miss Wilson is offering it to you for $1.50 a year. This offer is only for a week or perhaps a little longer, so don't delay getting your subscription. 11-14

FIRST STEAMER FOR WINTER PORT. The first liner to open the Canadian Pacific winter port season at St. John will be the Tuscan, due to sail from Glasgow on November 19, and east-bound from St. John on December 3. The first winter sailings from Portland and Halifax will be the White Star Dominion liner, Megantic from Portland on December 10, and Halifax the following day, and the Anchor-Donaldson liner, Saxonia from Portland December 10 and Halifax December 12. The Canadian Saxonia will leave Halifax on December 10 for Plymouth, Cherbourg and Hamburg.

POPPY DAY RESULTS. Poppies were everywhere in the city yesterday and there was no need to create a demand for them nor any need to urge reluctant purchasers to take them. The 12,000 small poppies sent from the French Children's League were far too few to meet the local demand and by 11 o'clock in the morning the tuggers and the headquarters workers at the G. W. V. A. set about making paper poppies to sell to the impatient public. While $2,073.25 was realized by the tagging and of that amount something more than $720 will go to the French children, the G. W. V. A. officials and members are far more delighted with the spirit manifested than with the financial success, although the money is to be used for most pressing needs.

The Favorite Watch With Railroadmen

"The Scientifically Built Watch"

Priced from $75.00 (movement only) upwards.

This is the Waltham "Vanguard"—the watch that thousands of engineers, conductors, trainmen and train dispatchers rely upon implicitly. Every part is made with extreme care upon special machines which do their work as exactly that there is no possibility of variation. When completed the movement is subjected to the most rigid tests to assure that it will keep time accurately under all conditions of actual service.

You can place absolute reliance upon the Waltham "Vanguard." It will always deserve your trust.

Made in 23 jewels with winding indicator.
