SAVING ON NEEDFULS.

Your wearing apparel needs may be supplied at big price reductions by patronizing C. J. Bassen's big fifth anniversary sale, 282 Brussels street and corner Union and Sydney. 6-25.

W. J. Crawford, who was mentioned yesterday as representing the plumbers' association at a city hall conference, is secretary of the St. John branch of the Canadian Building and Construction Industries, and not a representative of the plumbers.

A SEVERE BLOW. C. J. Bassen hit old H. C. L. a body blow when he got his pencil at work in figuring prices for his fifth anniversary sale now on in his two stores, 282 Brussels street and corner Sydney and Union. 6-25.

WOMEN'S SUITS FURTHER REDUCED AT OAK HALL.

The women's shop, Oak Hall have made some very drastic reductions in suits, in order to make a quick clearance, as they require this floor space for new summer merchandise that is daily arriving. Prices have been marked right down to practically original costs so that this sale represents an opportunity women should be quick to grasp. This sale starts tomorrow morning and as the best bargains are usually snapped up first it will be to each woman's interest to be on hand early.

WOMEN GETTING READY TO VOTE

They Are Registering by the Hundreds at Prohibition Headquarters, Union Street, and Other Places—Similar Information Coming in from Other Provincial Points—Must Register by Thursday.

Secretary Frank V. Hamm reports that the women are registering very rapidly at Prohibition Headquarters, Congregational Church, Union street. To those who find it more convenient the following places will be open every evening until Thursday from 7.30 till 10—Victoria Street Baptist Church, St. Luke's Church, Mission Church, Paradise Row, Steele's Shoe Store, 519 Main Street, Centenary Church School Room, St. David's Church, Sydney Street, Queen Square Church, Prohibition Headquarters, 100 Union Street, J. A. Lipsett's Store, 282 Brussels Street, F. S. Purdy's Store, 86 Wall Street, Ludlow Street Baptist Church, West End, Temperance Hall, Main Street, Fairville. Prohibition Headquarters, Congregational Church, 100 Union Street open daily—Phone Main 4884. Every woman in the province who has not registered should do so by Thursday. (adv.)

NEARLY EVERY FAMILY IS HANDICAPPED

By the Curse of Strong Drink, But None Ever Benefitted From It—Then, Why Hesitate About Supporting Prohibition July 10th?

Let any person of mature years visualize the past, investigate the family closet, and how few there are who have not a member of the family, immediate or removed, who has not been more or less handicapped in life by the use of liquor, while so many have been utterly ruined, but while in retrospect how impossible would it be to cite a single instance where indulgence in liquor has ever benefitted anyone in even the slightest degree. Then on the assumption that selfishness is a thing to be shunned and despised, how reasonable it is to deprive some to save thousands, and thus make this old world a better place to live in. If our voters, men and women, will be unselfish and honest July 10, keeping before them just the principle of prohibition, the opponents of the prohibitory law will get very few votes. Ladies remember that prohibition headquarters are in the Congregational Church, Union street, and that you must register not later than June 24. Telephone Main 4884. (adv.)

Life for a Golf Ball. Manchester, Eng., June 22—Alfred Both, aged eleven, a caddy, was drowned on the Reddish Vale golf links when he went into a pond to recover a golf ball. He could swim, but became entangled in the weeds.

A COLLEGE INN
ACHIEVEMENT

Many of the theatre-goers have already discovered the new place "down at the corner" wherein to quench their thirst or confab over a college ice.

The College Inn, just opposite the Dufferin hotel, on Charlotte street, is surely rightly located for those who attend any centrally located playhouse. Again, the service and supreme quality instantly apparent, is a drawing card that should bring 'em all the way from Moncton.

You'll like the College Inn. Visit our "Yesterday's" Counter, where all perishable goods, carried over from the day previous, are sold below cost. This is our guarantee of reliability always.
