necessary to accomplish these things is a larger band of workers. It is impossible for a few busy men to do all that should be done.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the officers and members for the many kindnesses extended to me during my term of office. My many shortcomings have been generously overlooked. The press has also been very kind, and has assisted the work in all ways possible.

The treasurer, Alex. Wilson, reported that he and W. K. Haley had raised $10 toward paying off the debt on skating rink and dressing room account, and hoped to raise the balance in a few days, thus starting the year with a clean sheet. They had met with a very generous response from business men.
