Detective Kennedy said this morning that Poulson's wife is very ill.

His many friends both in St. John and Halifax are glad to hear of his promotion and wish him every success.

DAUGHTERS LIVE HERE.
Relative of news of the death of Paul LaGoff, which occurred at his home in Richibucto, N. B., on Sunday. He was a highly respected resident of the community, and had attained the great age of ninety years, though he had not been in good health for a year and a half. He is survived by his wife, one son and four daughters. The son is Thomas of Richibucto, and two of the daughters, Mrs. Frank Shannon and Mrs. Edward Bean of this city. The other two daughters reside at home. The funeral will take place tomorrow at Richibucto. John friends will extend heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

LED TO ARREST.
That credit for starting discovery of a party who broke into the "Ocean" pharmacy a few nights ago and made off with a quantity of liquor should have gone to Patrolman McFarlane is information received by the Times. Patrolman McFarlane, who is on the North End division, was on duty at the Marsh bridge on the night of the robbery and was attracted by the actions of a man. He hid and watched him for some time and later when he was informed of the break he reported the matter to Sergeant Rankine, who in turn notified the police in the city. The liquor was discovered and later an arrest made.

SAYS IDEL TO GUESS AT THE TAX RATE

Regarding guesses which have been made on the subject of the possible tax rate for this year, E. M. Olive, chairman of the board of assessors, said this morning that it was absolutely impossible this early to make any estimate. This factor will be governed entirely by the results of the assessment under the new act. As this is his first year, there is nothing by which to judge of its effects. The changes in the act will produce changes in the returns and it is impossible to predict how these will work out. It is reasonable to expect, however, that the storm statements which are required of every citizen will result in increased valuations in income and property and, this gain may go far towards offsetting the increased expenditures which the council may find necessary. Until the assessment has been completed it will be impossible to say whether the rate this year will be higher or lower than last year.

BOARD OF TRADE NOTES.

The board of trade has received an inquiry from Anticosti for two or three good men to act as fishing masters for cod, herring and mackerel. The War Trade Board advises that owing to the serious shortage of draught cattle in Bulgaria there is a great demand for motor ploughs there. A gentleman who has been a resident of Trinidad and British Guiana for some years, informed the secretary of the board just before his return this week that there is an increasing demand for Canadian products at those points. He says that he has met with two complaints with respect to Canadian goods. One is that manufacturers are not so careful as they might be about the character of the goods they send to the West Indies. The other is that Canadian packing methods are faulty. "We prefer Canadian jam five times over to British jam," he said, "but in very many cases when the Canadian packages are opened the containers are broken. This is rarely the case with British-packed goods." He thought these complaints should be made known to Canadian shippers, so that they might prepare themselves to ship their best goods in the best shape.

BARRIERS ONLY ON DAYS WHEN SHIPS ARRIVE

A dispute between the city and the C. P. R. regarding the effect of the railway company on the wharves at Nos. 2 and 3 sheds at Sand Point for the purpose of controlling traffic has been settled temporarily by the city agreeing to permit the fences to remain and allowing the C. P. R. to control the admittance of people to the wharves when passengers are disembarking, but only at these times.

In a letter to J. R. Clancey, agent of the C. P. R. S. S., the city engineer remarks that these structures were placed on the wharves before proper authority had been taken to prevent them from being placed on the wharves without authority. "It is part of my duties to see that no such obstructions are placed on the city's property without the authority of the council, and if so placed to have them removed forthwith."

"Since the matter has now come to the attention of the commissioner and he now has it under advisement, my responsibility for the time being ceases, but I must ask that in the future you do not place any such obstructions on the wharves without authority. "The principle cannot be admitted that any individual or corporation can of their own free will place buildings or obstructions, such as these on city property before obtaining the approval of the council, and indeed there are now before the commissioners two similar cases which are causing a great deal of annoyance and trouble."

PORT OF ST. JOHN.

Arrived Jan. 20.
SS Royalist, from Halifax with a cargo of oil. Captain F. F. Forde.
SS Sheba, with coal from Sydney.
Sch Ella L. Williams, from Eatonville, N. S., Captain W. Deal.

MARINE NOTES.

The Ell L. Williams was recently launched at Eatonville by the builder, J. W. Kirkpatrick. She is a three-master and is 379 tons net register. She came here consigned to J. T. Knight & Co. and is to load for Barbados. She is fitted with hoisting power, and in every way is an up-to-date vessel. She was built for A. Moulton of Halifax, and recently sold to LaHave parties by him. The three-masted schooner Lucille, at present lying in Market slip, has been chartered to take a cargo of lumber from here to Antigua.

The Frances J. Elkin, a magnificent three-master of 555 tons net register, was successfully launched at Church Point, N. S., on Saturday. She is owned by R. C. Elkin Ltd. of this city and is named after Mrs. Elkin. The vessel is to be commanded by Captain S. Z. Rafuse of Bridgewater, who has been in the employ of Mr. Elkin for many years. After a few finishing touches have been made she will be brought to St. John.

The Royal Mail Steam Packet liner Carquet is expected to sail this afternoon for the West Indies with a large cargo and an exceptionally large passenger list. It is expected to be the steamer's last direct sailing from this port.

What is said to be the highest freight ever paid is being paid the owners of the tern schooners Meteghan and E. L. Con-..., which are chartered to load lumber for St. John, N. B., for Buenos Aires. They will receive $65 per thousand feet, and with a profitable return charter, the round trip would almost pay the cost of building the vessels.
