Why Did Papke, McGoorty and Klause Fail to Match?

By TOM ANDREWS

WHAT has become of all the middleweight matches between the near champions which were suggested some time ago and which many of the boxing fans looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure? When Billy Papke, the Illinois thunder-bolt, and Frank Klause, the Pittsburgh parrot, returned from France some time ago, it was supposed that they would have a three-cornered fight with Eddie McGoorty for the 158 pound title. All seemed anxious to bring about some matches, but the time is at hand now when Papke and Klause are returning to that dear Paris for their little set and never a sign of a match has been made.

There is no question about McGoorty's sincerity in seeking a meeting with the two named, but neither one made an effort to match with the Wisconsin fighter. It would seem that they were rather anxious to avoid a meeting with Eddie. Perhaps it might have been good business judgment, as if there had been a loser, their match abroad would no doubt be canceled, and it is pretty soft money they are getting in Paris; that is the sum paid by the promoters is away above anything of the kind to be offered on this side for the same match. And at that if Papke and Klause are both in good shape it should be a corking good contest and well worth seeing.

But getting down to brass tacks again, neither one has any right to claim the championship with consulting Edward McGoorty, of Oshkosh, Wis. The Wisconsin boy has earned his right to claim the title for America at 158 pounds ring-side, for I do not believe that either Papke or Klause can make that weight. Mike Gibbons received a great deal of boosting for the middleweight honor, until he demonstrated in his bout with McGoorty that he would stand no show in a long fight against the boy from Oshkosh. Mike has wisely decided to go into the welterweight again and if he does he should come near being cock of the walk, although he will find Without Ferns one hard nut to crack, and if Ray Bronson is right he will travel the maroon route at a good clip. Jimmy Clabby is about the best man in line for middleweight consideration, along with Jack Dillon. Jimmy Clabby is really the middleweight champion of Australia, for Dave Smith never made the weight for him when they fought in Sydney, and Jimmy defeated all the other claimants to the Australian championship in that class.

Brenahan, Tippler realizes that the Reds are weak behind the bat, and is prepared to go as far as length for Archer, now a match will be on on-day Wilkes vs. Pearl Barnum—for $200 a side.

It is expected that about fifty members of the club will go to Fredericton, and that they will be accompanied by about the same number of local men.

At the meeting it was decided to get the Millville ice in shape for the races there Wednesday, Feb. 13. Arthur Conner is in charge of the arrangements, and a plough will be the spot to get things in proper shape. Two stands will be erected and there will be a starter and a judge. The heats for each race will be run off, one immediately following the other. It is expected that participants in the races will have supper at the Barker House after the conclusion of the races. The members of the Matinee Driving Club are all very enthusiastic at the good work done by the club, and are keeping well heated up.

Fredericton Arguments

The Glenora says—Arrangements for the Celestial Driving Club's end of the management of the first inter-city matinee race meeting to be held here on Wednesday when the local horsemen will have the St. John and St. Croix Valley Driving Clubs as their guests, were completed at a meeting which was held yesterday.

The St. Croix horses will be quartered at George E. How's stable, while the St. John horses will be quartered at the Commercial Hotel stables. When the driving clubs organized, Ald. Hugh O'Neill, of this city, was named as starter at all the meets, and he will officiate in that capacity on Wednesday. E. Trice as judge and John S. Allen as timer, have been chosen as the Celestial City Driving Club's representative in the judge's stand, and City Marshal James Robertson will be the marshal in charge of the track.

SKATING

New World's Record. Toronto, Feb. 11.—R. Wheeler of the Montreal A. A. A. was the star of the international skating races in the Arena last night. He won the 200, 400, half mile and mile events, and beat Bob McLean, the Chicago wonder.

In the second heat of the 400 event, Fred Rabson, a local skater, made a new world's record, 37 seconds. The former record was held by R. McLean, who made it a few weeks ago. In an exhibition hunt race, Rabson established a new world's record of 21.15 seconds.

WRESTLING

May See Goteh Again. Chicago, Feb. 10.—Frank Goteh, champion heavyweight wrestler of the world, may emerge from retirement. "If there is a public demand that I wrestle, I will come back," he said, "but I'm not anxious to go into training."

BASEBALL

Harry Thibault Dead. Lewiston, Feb. 10.—Harry Thibault, an old-time baseball player of this city, was found sitting in a doorway in Lincoln street dead. He was 43 years old and unmarried. Twenty-five years ago, just before Lewiston entered the New England League, Thibault played in the outfield on the Lewiston nine and when the team was taken into the New England League he went with it and played for a time.

Strange Story Told in England

AUTO ROBBERS HAD HIM

Driven to Fake Police Station and There Maltreated and Robbed—Was on Way to England With Timber Deal

(Times Special Correspondent) London, Jan. 28.—Highly sensational was the experience related to your correspondent by Walter W. Clarke of Vancouver, who arrived in London last week. Traveling to New York to take the steamer he had a few hours to wait in Chicago. Entering into conversation with the depot policeman there he was advised to take a motor ride around the city.

The policeman called a cab, said Mr. Clarke and I told the driver to take me round the residential quarters as I had never been in Chicago before. We drove for some time, probably an hour, and had reached a street which was almost deserted when the driver dismounted and, coming to a halt, he explained that he was not the policeman but a robber.

"We arrived at the police station or what I took to be a station and I was called on to explain. I protested that there was nothing to explain and that the driver had attempted to enforce a corollary. There were three officers all plain clothes, and to the one sitting behind a desk I said 'Come to get my money.' The driver had his say, and after he had finished the officer said 'Why don't you say you have got the money? I said I would not be robbed and was immediately hit a violent blow on the side of the head. I was partially unconscious but I would not be robbed and was immediately hit a violent blow on the side of the head.

"The driver had his say, and after he had finished the officer said 'Why don't you say you have got the money? I said I would not be robbed and was immediately hit a violent blow on the side of the head. I was partially unconscious but I would not be robbed and was immediately hit a violent blow on the side of the head.

Was Afraid COLD WOULD DEVELOP INTO BRONCHITIS.

Bronchitis begins with a slightness across the chest, difficulty of breathing, a wheezing sound coming from the lungs. There is also a raising of phlegm from the lungs, especially in the morning. This is a fine sign of a cold or cough take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and prevent it turning to bronchitis, for once bronchitis gets installed into the system it is only a short step to Consumption.

Mrs. J. Saunders, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I am with great success I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. My little girl had an awful cold which seemed to go to her throat and chest, and while she was sleeping one could distinctly hear her wheezing. I was afraid it would develop into Bronchitis, so as soon as my husband came home I sent him right away to get a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. As soon as she awakened up I gave her a dose and continued it up until she became quite better. We only used half a bottle. I will never be without it as I consider it invaluable.

Be sure you get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. The price is 25c and 50c per bottle. Put up in a yellow wrapper, and three pine trees the trade mark.

FOOD THROUGH A TUBE

Barber Has Not Swallowed For Sixteen Years

Chicago, Feb. 11.—Fred C. Vick, who for sixteen years has swallowed no food, is giving aid to science through observation of his digestive process, according to Prof. A. C. Carlson, assistant in the department of psychology at the University of Chicago.

By means of a glass tube, through which an electric light is introduced into the man's stomach, Dr. Carlson said he had been able to observe and even photograph the food at every stage during the process of digestion.

Since he was eleven years old, Vick has taken food through a tube leading from the abdomen into the stomach, the apparatus having been completely closed when he swallowed a strong solution. The man was found working at his trade here as a barber several months ago.

SIR BEVERLY WANTS TO BE KNOWN AS PLAIN MR.

New York, Feb. 11.—The Times says:—The passenger list of the Atlantic Transport liner Minnehaha in from London, displayed in big black type the name "Sir J. Beverly Robinson, Bart." and when the reporters went up to Sir Beverly to find out how home rule, suffragettes and old-age pensions were coming along in England, Sir Beverly expressed much surprise that he should be expected to know anything about such things.

"My dear young friends," said he "one of my ancestors left me a title that I had almost forgotten that I owned. Why I lived here in New York before you were born, and would not live anywhere else. It isn't my fault that they put me down as Sir Beverly on the passenger list instead of just plain 'Mister' as I have been known now for some thirty-odd years of residence in New York. I am in business in Exchange Place and will be glad to see you any time, but ask for Mr. Robinson, and not for Sir Beverly Robinson, Bart., if you want the boy at the door to know whom you are seeking."

Sir John Beverly Robinson, is the eldest son of the late Hon. J. B. Robinson, Lieut. Governor of Ontario, 1880-7. The present baronet, who was born in Toronto in 1845, was formerly an officer in the Queen's Own there. He succeeded his cousin in the title in 1901, and is now living at "Glenwood" Edgevale, N. J.

Looking For Sardines

Eastport, Feb. 11.—The securing of from 25 to 30 hogsheads of small herrings to be used for lobster bait by one of the firms in this city engaged in the fish business, is an encouraging indication that there will be an early run of spring fish, suitable for sardines this season, and may mean an early opening of the factories.

There was a noticeable number of shipments of sardines from this city last week and about all of the independent packers have disposed of their last season's pack and will be in readiness to commence work as soon as the season opens if the price of sardines warrants it.
