BRACELET CASE IN THE POLICE COURT

Grant Was to Have it Repaired, Says Owner, But Later Said he Lost it—Segee Assault Matter Dismissed

A case against Thomas Grant, charged with stealing a gold bracelet from Mrs. Matilda Gertrude Wilson of Acadia street, was heard this morning in the police court. The value of the bracelet is $5 and the court asked Grant if he preferred to be tried in the police court or else go to the higher court. The prisoner chose the latter. The preliminary hearing was then begun.

Mrs. Wilson said that in March last Grant came to her house and took a bracelet, telling her that he would have it repaired for her. She said she had not covered it since. She had asked Grant for it, but he had never returned it. The bracelet had been given to her by her uncle and she valued it very much.

Mrs. Medley Tibb told of having a conversation with Grant about the bracelet about a month ago. She said he told her it was in a jewelry store in Main street being repaired. On inquiry there she said she found that the bracelet had not been left there. Grant later told her that he had lost the bracelet and that he was willing to pay for it.

Grant told the court that he would willingly refund the price of the bracelet to Mrs. Wilson given a chance.

He was committed for trial.

Leo and Raymond McLaughlin, reported for removing sand from a beach on the west side explained that it was the mud deposited by the dredges that they had removed. The material was allowed to stand over until Monday morning.

Charles McCarthy and Andrew Magee were each fined $8 or two months in jail on the charge of drunkenness, in the police court this morning. Patrick Quinn, arrested on a like charge, by Policeman Marshall was not able to be brought into court, as one of his legs was badly injured and he was unable to walk. Dr. E. Berryman found that the man's right ankle was broken. He was sent to the hospital in the ambulance.

Ward B. Stevens, arrested on a charge of assaulting John A. Segee pleaded not guilty. Mr. Segee swore that Stevens struck him on the head with his fist and had also struck him with a chair. Stevens swore that he and Segee lived together in a little shack on the Millidgeville Road, and that on the night in question Segee told him that the officers were coming to put them off the land again. Segee, he said, told him that if the policeman came that he would tie him hand and foot and throw him out, but did not strike him. The case was dismissed.

SEND AWAY APPLES TO BOOM PROVINCE

Prize Fruit From Local Show Going as Far as Pacific and New York

The New Brunswick Apple Show which was successfully conducted in St. Andrew's rink all week, was brought to a close last night. The attendance was very good and much favorable comment was made on the exhibits. This morning the exhibitors were busy getting their goods ready for shipment. Many of them intend keeping their fruit in the rink for the purpose of showing them at the Amherst Winter Fair which will be held in Amherst on December 5.

The exhibit of the department of agriculture will be split up and sent to different fairs. Two boxes will be shipped to the fair to be shown at the Dominion fruit growers' convention there on Dec. 12. Fifty boxes will be sent to the Ontario Horticultural Exhibition which is to be held in Toronto on Nov. 15, and twelve boxes will go to Quebec to be shown at the annual meeting of the Pomological Society on Monday next. Secretary Turney will accompany the exhibits to the different places.

It is just possible that 200 boxes of the department's exhibit will be auctioned in the rink here tomorrow morning, but the matter had not been definitely settled today.

Not only in this way are the apples to be sent around to advertise New Brunswick as a fruit growing district, but individual purchasers are taking advantage of the fine display to boom the province. Walter H. Golding sent boxes away as far as New York and Vancouver. H. L. Watkins of the Keith management, who was here on business this week, visited the fruit show and was so much impressed with the quality of the apples that he purchased several boxes to send to friends in the states.

Secretary Turney is busily engaged making up the list of prize winners at the show and the amount won by each. The list will be ready by tomorrow.

MASONIC VISIT

Gathering in Carleton Lodge Rooms Was Attended by Large Number

A visit was made by the grand master and officers of the Grand Lodge F. and A. M., last evening to the rooms of Carleton Union Lodge, No. 8, West Side, and it proved most enjoyable. A happy evening was spent by all present, numbering about one hundred. The communication of 30 degrees was successfully carried out and an interesting and encouraging address was delivered by Dr. H. S. Bridges, the grand master.

Following the communication ceremonies, Enoch Thompson, the worshipful master of the lodge, took the chair and presided most efficiently at a banquet. The members of the grand lodge present at the ceremonies and banquet, besides Grand Master Bridges, were: Dr. Thos. Walker, past grand master; Dr. Melvin Young, deputy grand master; J. Teeming Hartt, grand secretary; Charles Jones, grand director of ceremonies; Rev. R. A. Armstrong, grand chaplain; D. Arnold Wood, grand treasurer; Perry McWhorter, junior grand warden; and Herbert Crockett, junior grand warden.

If You Are About To Purchase a Range or Heater This Fall You Should Not Fail to See Our GLENWOOD RANGE and the GLENWOOD OAK HEATER Before Making Your Selection.

The Glenwood Range is simple to operate, light on fuel and a perfect baker. The Glenwood Oak Heater has many advantages, being quick to light and easy on fuel. The ash pit and lower draft door are fitted so very tight that a wood fire can easily be kept in over night. It also shakes from the side which prevents the dust from escaping. The Glenwood Oak is provided with a perforated iron band to consume the gas, it circulates the inside of the fire pot and will be found a valued addition especially to people wishing to burn soft coal.

The Glenwood Oak Heater like our Glenwood Ranges have always given perfect satisfaction where ever they are in use.

We also carry a complete stock of the New Brunswick Silver Stove in different sizes.
