

The General Committee Delegates to District Meetings to be chosen by SENIORITY in regular succession, having travelled seven years.

STATIONING OF MINISTERS.

Q. 14.—What shall be the course of proceeding in this matter for the future?

A.—A Stationing Committee shall be composed of the General Committee Delegates of the Districts, with two Laymen each from the Toronto and Brampton Districts, and one Layman from each of the other Districts. The Stationing Committee thus formed shall meet immediately after the opening of Conference, and have power to receive communications to assist it in submitting to the Conference, on the second day of its Session, a Draft of the Stations, for amendments. Then the draft of the Stations, in its corrected form, shall be submitted to the Conference and read a second time, for further corrections, on Monday morning. And on Tuesday afternoon a third reading shall take place for final revision and confirmation.

Q. 15. — What are the further regulations of Conference?

A.—That no Minister's children, born during the PROBATION of the said Minister, be entitled to allowances from the Children's Fund.

That the thanks of this Conference be given to the British Conference for its liberal grant in aid of Canadian Missions.
