Hamlin Garland's Narrow Escape.
West Salem, Wis., Oct. 8.—The home of Hamlin Garland was burned yesterday and the author had a narrow escape from death. He was awakened by the flames and was obliged to leap from a second storey window. A servant girl received burns which are serious. The fire was caused by an explosion of gasoline.
Valuable curios gathered by Mr.
Garland in all parts of the world, besides the house and other furmiture,
were destroyed.

Concession to Ulster?

London, Oct. 8.—The Daily Telegraph, referring to persistent rumors in political circles that the Government is negotiating with John Redmond in the hope of finding a way out of the Ulster impasse, says that a suggested basis of compromise made has been to give Ulster the right of exemption from some of the provisions of the home rule bill under certain conditions.

It is said that some agreement has been reached.
