

Commercial College of St. Cesaire

ROUVILLE COUNTY, CANADA

This institution was founded by Rev. J. A. PROVENÇAL, in 1869, and is conducted by the Religious of the Congregation of the Holy Cross. It affords the advantages of a complete commercial and christian education, as is fully testified by the position now occupied, by the alumni and the continued patronage of the public in general.

The principal branches taught are : both English and French languages, Penmanship, Arithmetic in all its parts, Geography, History, Algebra, Geometry, Book-Keeping, Natural History, Literature and Rhetoric, Correspondence, Drawing, Stenography, Telegraphy, Type-writing, the Elements of Physics and Practical Logic.

BUSINESS CLASS.

This class has been established for the purpose of giving to the pupils all the advantages of a first class commercial education. In this department, the pupils are accustomed to transact affairs similar to those of persons engaged in a mercantile life, there being a Bank, Custom-House Office, Post Office, Telegraph Office, etc., etc. Pupils undergoing a satisfactory examination on the various branches taught in this department are entitled to a diploma. At a short distance from the college is a railroad connecting with the principal lines of the Dominion and the United States.
