LOCAL NEWS

St. John Exhibition, September 12th to 19th.

The 3rd R. C. A. Tuffe Club will hold their spoon match on Saturday afternoon.

A disturbance in Henry Murphy's house on Brussels street, was quelled last night by the police.

The members of the artillery band are requested to meet at their rooms on Saturday afternoon, at 2.30 sharp, in uniform.

Henry Bettle, the inspector of vehicles, had reported ten persons for driving vehicles for hire in the city without a license.

The Young Curlews of Fort Howe defeated the Young St. Peters by the score of 3-1. Batteries of St. Peters were Casey and McFarland; for the Curlews, Harlin and Harlin.

If ten dollars is your price for a suit of clothes it will be just like finding $3.02 if you go to C. B. Pidgeon, corner Main and Bridge streets, to be fitted out for $4.83.

James Dryden found a lady's gold locket on South Market street, this morning and handed it over to Policeman McNamee. A reader of the Star, who has lost the locket can obtain the same on application at the Central police station.

Matthew Cavanaugh the resigned fire department driver was this morning sworn in as a good live policeman. Magistrate Ritchie was the official who swore in the new cop and "Mac" was the recipient of numerous congratulations.

Proprietor Coughlan, of a Union street saloon, was in the police court this morning, charged with having a sign projecting over the sidewalk so far that it was lawfully objectionable. He promised to remove the sign and was excused.

A couple of Indianston residents have had an altercation that has brought them into the police court. David Corkery had charged George Kerwin with abusive language. Owing to the absence of witnesses the case was adjourned until this afternoon.

John H. Roberts, who conducted a temperance campaign in this city last winter under the auspices of the New Brunswick Temperance Federation and who is a brilliant speaker, will deliver an address in the Wesleyan Day Club building, at 8 o'clock. Before the meeting the club's band will play a series of selections.

A young fellow named McNalley, and his step-mother, are apparently not on the best of terms, because the 13-year-old boy is remanded to the county jail for throwing stones at his stepmother, and incidentally kicking her. It is possible that matters will be amicably adjusted and the young prisoner will return to his stepmother, be an ideal youth and keep the dust off the "Home Sweet Home" motto on the wall.

At Alexandra Hall, North End, last evening, the All-Collegians, winners of St. Peter's Minor Baseball League, were presented with their trophy. The opening remarks were given by L. Donnelly, who congratulated the team on their success. The presentation was made by E. J. Mahoney in a short and neat speech, wished the team every success. Rev. Father Holland responded in a suitable manner on behalf of the winning team. Refreshments were served which brought the gathering to a close.

WOULD BE A SPLENDID EVENT

Mr. Rothwell Makes a Valuable Suggestion

Which Should Not Go Unheeded—Should Have Salmon Boat Races for Exhibition Week

There is a strong feeling that the Exhibition Association should take active steps to promote outside events during exhibition week, such as rowing and yacht races over the harbor course. There seems to be a desire on the part of yachtmen to do this in order to make the events successful and no doubt if the exhibition management would give the matter their earnest attention arrangements could easily be made for such attractions. It could have but one effect upon the attendance at the exhibition. That would be to increase the number passing through the turnstiles. The following letter offers a suggestion that should be acted upon immediately: To the Sporting Editor of The Star:

Dear Sir:—In regard to the holding of yacht races on the harbor course during exhibition week.

As the executive of the Exhibition Association have intimated their willingness to contribute prizes for the above purpose, allow me to suggest that a race between "Salmon Boat" and "Purdy," to take place at the same time as the yacht races.

Such a race would be certain to create great interest.

There are a large number of this type of sail boat owned, and used in the harbor, and also between twenty and thirty of the same type, slightly altered (and improved the owners believe) used for pleasure purpose on the river; there is considerable difference of opinion as to the speed of the different boats and many of the river boat owners would welcome an opportunity to try conclusion with the fishermen and the board.

There would certainly be a large number of boats entered for this race, and as there would be no handicap or allowance it would be most interesting, both for spectators and contestants.

Yours,
W. G. ROTHWELL

HEARD ADDRESS FROM HIGH CHIEF RANGER

Court Wygoody Listened to Splendid Address Last Night—A Good Social Hour Followed.

The Court Wygoody, I. O. F., held its seventh anniversary last evening. Chief Ranger Mrs. Blyea presiding. There was a large attendance of members and visitors. High Chief Ranger Mereserau, accompanied by a guard of honor of Royal Foresters, was introduced by E. J. Todd, the Chief Ranger in court, giving the high court honors and a hearty welcome. The High Chief in addressing the court, spoke at some length in an eloquent manner on the past, present and future of the order, stating his entire confidence in the financial stability of the order, and in dealing with the social and fraternal side he at once aroused the enthusiasm of the meeting. In concluding the High Chief congratulated the court on its past successes, and predicted a bright and successful future.

Short addresses were also given by Past High Chief Rangers, H. W. Woods and D. G. Langley; High Secretary F. W. Emmerston, and E. J. Todd, who stated that the recent changes in the constitution admitted ladies to the sick and funeral benefits, and also as social members. Solos were given by Miss Beattie Hill who appeared in Highland costume, readings by Miss Mollie Langley, and Miss Willis. An efficient committee had charge of the refreshments and an enjoyable social half hour was spent prior to the close by the National Anthem.

THOUGHT MOTHER COULD WAIT WHILE HE GOT DRUNK

One lone drunk was given the usual dose of medicine at the police court this morning.

Wm. Kanary is a man who drew a fairly large amount of money at Chipman, about a week ago made a trip to St. John, and after having a few drinks became very careless with a good roll of money. The result was that James Lawlor is now surmounting in jail on the charge of stealing part of the money. Kanary claimed to be on the way home to visit his aged mother, and while held as a witness for a couple of days he was finally released after paying a drunk fine. He did not go and see his mother, but got drunk again, and this morning was arrested for not giving a satisfactory account of himself on Portland street. He had $23.56 in his pockets and was remanded to jail.

A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT.

A night blooming cerus has been the admiration of many during the week at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Seymour, Duke Street, East. The plant has possessed three buds. On Tuesday night at 9 one came into bloom, another on Wednesday night at 10, and on Thursday night another came into bloom, each blossom lasting from four to five hours. The stem of the cerus is twisted in a most peculiar shape, the blossom being about eight inches in circumference and of the most delicate fibre, pure white and beautiful fragrance. The cerus is seven years old and has been much admired by the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour, during the days it has been in bloom.

DEATHS.
