Ranger Groups, was an unqualified success

The payers were greeted by a cashacity house. Music was furnished by the Bourgeo's orchestra, and Mr Rene Fournier rendered delightful plano music at intermission and played the accompaniments for the soloists.

The play was directed by Mr. Ralph MoDavid; the cast was well chosen and each member played their part with understanding, and sustained the interest of the audience. The part of "Dixie Rose" was and little daughter Barbara, returned from Montreal on Sunday.
