St. John—South End.
St. John's distinguished French visitor, Prince Roland Bonaparte, was tendered a reception on Saturday evening last by Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley, at their residence, Carleton House. Invitations had been issued by Lady Tilley the day previous to upwards of 150 guests, and being Saturday night the hours were from 9 o'clock till 11.

Sir Leonard and Lady Tilley received the guests, who being announced, were presented to the Prince by Major Gordon, the Governor's A. D. C. The Prince was accompanied by his secretary, Mr. like the guests of the evening, was unable to converse in English. However, several ladies amongst the company brushed up their French for the occasion and chatted freely with him. Prince Roland was most affable to all. Harrison's orchestra played in the hall, gave several choice selections during the evening, and at 10 o'clock the guests filed into the large dining room where supper was laid.

Lady Tilley looked exceedingly well in a gown of rich black velvet square cut the corsage studded here and there with diamonds. The guests were all in full evening dress. Among them were several very handsome gowns.
