Extends Thanks to People of United States for Splendid Reception Given Him.

New York, July 6.—George Carpentier and Francisco Descamps, his manager, were guests last night at a dinner given to visiting French and British sport writers by the editor and publishers.

Tribute was paid to the sportsmanship of the United States press and public by Ben Bonelson of the London Daily Telegraph, speaking for the British writers and Victor Breyer, boxing critic of Echo de Sport.

Carpentier, responding to a toast in his honor, thanked one to Jack Dempsey, his conqueror.

"For the past ten years it has been my ambition to box for the world's championship, but on Saturday I met the man whom I think the greatest boxer in the world," he said.

"I do not wish to deny that I was under great emotion when I entered the ring as I saw about me great multitudes of people and when I heard their ovation I thought they were all French. I wish to extend all my thanks to the people of the United States and especially to the press for the manner in which I have been treated and I now drink a toast to the health of Jack Dempsey."

Before entering the ring Saturday, Carpentier told his manager that if he could not win he desired to "go down with colors flying." Descamps said, "We talked it over and Carpentier said there should be no sponge, he said to let the loser go down with a blow on the jaw."

N. B. PROVINCIAL
RIFLE ASSOCIATION

The annual matches of the N. B. Provincial Rifle Association will be held at Sussex on August 2nd, 3rd and 4th. The usual number of competitions will be held. Arrangements are being made to provide camping facilities on the range and meals will be provided by a competent caterer.

The regular Lee-Enfield rifle will be used and Orthoptics will be allowed. Ammunition will be furnished free of cost to competitors.

Cadets Free Entry
Cadets are granted free entry into all matches except Extra Series, and tents provided free of charge. There will be a special Cadet Match at 200 and 500 yards with both individual and team prizes. Teams to be composed of three members from any one corps. There are also special inducements in the way of prizes for new shots, or Tyros, to attend.

Attendance at last year's matches was smaller than usual on account of there having been no matches held for the previous six years; but it is expected that the attendance this year will be somewhat larger.

ROYALS DEFEATED ROSES
The North End Royals defeated the South End Roses in an interesting baseball game played on Elm street diamond on Tuesday night, the score being 5-2. A feature of the game was a home run by A. Parlo. The batteries for the winners were: W. Best, C. Stevens and J. Bryson, and for the losers, W. Ward, J. Bean and H. Webber. A return game is expected in the near future.

Johnson Wants
To Fight Jack

Labor Day for Purse of $200,000
Is Suggested in the Negotiations.

Los Angeles, Cal. July 6.—Captain J. McCaw, formerly with the British air service and now of Pasadena, a wealthy clubman, last night wired Jack Kearns, New York, manager of Jack Dempsey, offering to fight him for half of the receipts to go to the fighters and half to the American Veterans of the World War, an organization which includes them as soldiers.

The message was endorsed and authorized, according to the Captain, by Post No. 1 of the American Legion in Los Angeles.

Can Have Fight

New York, July 6.—"The public can have a Dempsey-Johnson match if it wishes but I believe there is no demand for the bout now or in the near future," Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, said today on learning that Captain J. M. McCaw of Pasadena had offered the champion a guarantee of $200,000 to box Jack Johnson on Labor Day.

Kearns stated that he had drawn no color line on behalf of the champion, but suggested that Johnson should meet Harry Wills or another leading negro before being considered for a championship match.

Tells Strange Tale

Chicago, July 6.—Jack Dempsey, who arrived here today for a short visit on his way to his home in Salt Lake City, said that two men mysteriously put in their appearance in his corner in the third round of his fight with Carpentier last Saturday, with the intention, he believed, of throwing a towel in the ring to create a disorder. "One man had a towel in his hand," said Dempsey, "and my friend, Mike Trook, questioned them. The men told Trant, Richard had put them there. Trant did not credit the story and had the police take them away. I believe these men intended to throw the towel into the ring from my corner, creating a scene of disorder."

Tokio, July 6.—The general impression in Japan that Crown Prince Hirohito's visit abroad signifies the inauguration of a new epoch of liberalism in Japanese history, affecting both the future relations of the throne and people and Japan's attitude in the world, had official confirmation last night. At a dinner given by Count M. Soyeshima, Liberal member of the house of peers, in honor of Baron Makino, minister of the imperial household, and Baron Shimpel, mayor of Tokyo, Baron Makino declared the crown prince's voyage not only was a great advantage to the Japanese people and to Japan, but good for the betterment of the future relationship of Japan with the outside world.

The presence of Premier Hara, minister of Marine Affairs, diplomats, and about 100 others, Japanese and foreigners, lent importance to the function. Baron Makino's speech created extraordinary interest, because, as minister of the imperial household, and therefore adviser to the future emperor, he is expected to play a leading and significant role in the empire's policies at the time when Japan is steadily emerging from her ancient aloofness and isolation and the Liberal movement is widespread in all phases of national life. The impression exists in Tokyo that the dinner was arranged especially to afford an opportunity to publicly announce forthcoming changes, which Count Soyeshima, with authority summarized as certain to be great when Prince Hirohito returned.

One of the features of the evening was the ovation extended to Edward Bell, who has achieved much popularity during his service as United States charge d'affaires in Tokyo. Mr. Bell pointed out the great regret of President Harding and the people of the United States that the crown prince was unable to include America in his journey. Nothing could have given the United States greater pleasure than his coming. "Mr. Bell asserted, but the United States hoped it was only a deferred pleasure."

"I can assure you," he said, "that when the crown prince does come we will give him a hearty welcome."

Baron Makino said that Prince Hirohito's visit abroad, which primarily was arranged to complete his education, had become an international event, which could bring nothing but good to everyone concerned. The next day the crown prince's voyage was unprecedented in the dynastic history of 2,500 years, Baron Makino declared.

Into the Ring
With the Royals

Old Favorites Showed Class in Their Opening Game With the Royals.

Last year's old All-Star team made their initial appearance on the South End diamond on Tuesday evening when they were defeated in a fast game by the Royals, the score being 6-5. The team this year is composed of a number of old-timers, who in the past showed themselves to be in the very pink of condition, which added to the long list of victories for the team on which they played.

Known as one of the best fielders on any intermediate team now playing, had the Royals at his mercy after the first inning, but the runs tallied in that frame by the winners were enough to give them the victory for which they fought. "Freddie" Gorman, the star catcher of the All-Stars, was there all the way, and at many times he was the cause of his team's "frightening" up, with the result that they played air-tight ball. "Bill" McGovern, the captain of the team, and an old-timer at the game, played a great game at the initial crack. Cooper, on the slab for the Royals, was hit hard and often, but he was given good support, with the result that his team came out with the long end of the score. The batteries were: For the Royals, Austin and Cooper, and for the All-Stars, Gorman and Knowles. A list of the old-time players who now compose the All-Star team are here given: Fred Gorman, catcher, who has been playing for a number of years in Intermediate and Senior ball; John Knowles, pitcher and outfielder, a member of the old All-Star, and other well-known baseball teams in this city; "Bill" McGovern, first baseman and a member of the old All-Stars; "Tony" Gorman, second baseman, a member of Mo-Arty's Industrial League team and an old All-Star and Victoria team player; Harold Doyle, third baseman and pitcher, and a member of the old champion Victorias; Arthur Devine, better known as "Barney," and a member of the old All-Stars; William "Shorlock" Doyle, first baseman and outfielder and a member of the old Victorias; Dan Doyle, outfielder, another member of the champion Victorias; Bill Fraser, catcher and outfielder, played by a number of the late clubs in the past two years; Harold Evans, pitcher and outfielder, and a member of the old All-Stars and Bill Long, third baseman, who played in the line-up of the 26th Battalion in France. This team, without a bit of doubt, will make things interesting in the league and it is surmised by a number of the fans that when the league finishes this All-Star team will be comfortably resting at the head with a few games to spare.

UNEMPLOYED ARE READING GOOD BOOKS

The head of a big public library in the United States reports that unemployment has brought an unprecedented demand for reading matter, and this is not of the light and trifling type, but of a serious and instructive nature to help those who are employed to hold their jobs and the unemployed to find themselves for jobs.

Although unemployment has brought grumbling and discontent, it is making people think, and this is of a good thing. Education as a means of getting and holding jobs is better appreciated than it used to be. The report is that a number of the unemployed are reading books which are all the more encouraging evidence.
