Annual Meeting of Carleton Branch Held Tuesday

The sixth annual meeting of the Carle-ton Branch Bible Society was held Tuesday ton Branch Bible Society was held Tuesday evening in the Carleton city hall. The attendance was quite large, and the ad-dresses of the evening were interesting. W. D. Baskin presided, and others on the platform were Rev. Dr. G. M. Camp-bell, Rev. H. R. Reid, Rev. W. H. Samp-Bert M. Electors and Rev. R. P. Rev. Mr. Fletcher, and Rev. R. P. McKim.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: W. D. Baskin, president; the resident clergymen, vicepresident; the resident cargymen, vice presidents; Enoch Thompson, secretary; Jarvis Wilson, W. J. Cornfield, D. C. Clark, G. S. Mayes, S. Merritt Wetmore, W. S. Harding, Martin Peterson, H. Col-by Smith, Fred. Burridge, J. F. Brown, committee; Mrs. Norman McLeod, Miss E. Clark, Miss Gertrude Marsh, Mrs. Samuel Sewell, collectors. The Year's Work.

As the annual report of the New Bruns-wick auxiliary has not yet been publish-ed, Secretary Thompson's report dealt solely with the Carleton branch. The re-port stated that the ladies appointed as collectors at the last annual meeting de-served sincere and hearty thanks for so promptly undertaking and so satisfactorily completing their arduous duties. The fol-lowing sums had been handed to him by the collectors and he, in turn, had given ectors and he, in turn, had given int to the general treasurer:

	Mrs. Norman McLeod $	21.10

a gunpowder accident, was taken to his late home by train Thursday. Mr. Porter, who was 26 years of age, was about to set off a blast, when the fuse was ignited too quickly and in the ex-plosion that followed his face and eyes were severely injured, and he was taken to the hospital. He seemed to be doing well until Tuesday when he took a bad turn, from which he was unable to rally.
