EXTENDED MISSIONARY OPERATIONS.

The Missionary Committee reported the following resolution which was adopted.

Resolved.—That in view of the rapidly increasing population of Canada, and the extensive depletion of the Churches by Western emigration, this Union urgently recommend that the Pastors of our Churches, as far as possible, severally devote at least three Sabbaths in the year to itinerant labour, and that in order to secure from such services the largest results, the Local Missionary Committees be consulted as to the places having special need of such visits; that on the recommendation of the Local Committees, expenses incurred in such service be defrayed from Missionary funds; and further, that the Local Committees be
