

The Land's End, 86.
 Theatre of activity for the youth, 302.
 Thirteen millions of dogs, 316.
 Thirty millions Farmers taxed for thirty million others, 17.
 Thirty millions inhabit farms, 14.
 Thousand, A, weighing machines bought, 30.
 Thousand millions a year for coffee, tea, sugar, wines, etc., 84.
 Three prominent Hebrews, 37.
 Three conditions of Success, 70.
 Thrift conspicuous by absence, 320.
 Throwing in Adjectives, 259.
 Tonnage of London and Liverpool surpassed, 219.
 Torrey's bankrupt bill, 348.
 Treasure undeveloped, A, 63.
 Treasure which the world contains, 66.
 Traction Syndicate, support of, 242.
 Trade, doubling the area of 133.
 Trade knows no Politics, 146.
 Trades, few better than farming, 61.
 Trading with the North, 140.
 Training of poverty and self reliance, 214.
 Transmission of Motor Power, 329.
 Travellers' Life Insurance Co. 251.
 Treacherous Eddy, A, 347.
 Tribute levied by terminals, 290.
 Tribute from every nation, 127.
 Tribute paid to England, 121.
 Trips, fifteen per day increased to sixty, 222.
 True mission of the United States, 78.
 Trusts, a proclamation of peace, 258.
 Tunnel for the Nation, 290.
 Tunnel, fighting for a, 204.
 Tunnel under Light-house grounds, 233.
 Two appreciative ladies, 79.
 Two brothers contrasted, 196.
 Two markets, 145.
 Type-setters' chance, A, 258.
 Typical Canadian dinner, 114.
 Typewriters, the first of, 159.

Uncle Sam no longer rich enough, 86.
 Uncle Sam's dilemma, 117.
 United States through English eyes, 255.
 United States enriched by a dictionary, 205.
 Uniform tariff, 142.
 Universal use of corn, 115.
 Universal use of eggs.
 Unlimited supply of land in Canada, 81.
 Unnatural growth of cities, 24.
 Unshackling trade and commerce, 182.
 Urban population increasing, 326.

Values, enhancement of, 329.
 Values in city properties, 200.
 Vanderbilt, Cornelius, useful in every way, 214.
 Vanderbilts, A defeat for, 225.

Vanderbilts yield the telegraph to Gould, 99.
 Vanderbilt, W. H. and the public, 223.
 Van Horn, John, a pillar in telegraphy, 253.
 Van Horne, W. C., courageous and able, 342.
 Village population dependent on Farmers, 14.
 Voice of God following voice of people, 69.
Wanamaker, John, 37.
 Wants of foreign Nations, 73.
 Wants supplied by wants of others, 332.
 War as a business, 248.
 War with England unlikely, 231.
 Waste of Competition, 36.
 Water famine avoided, 228.
 Water powers transmitted, 329.
 Waterways of the New World, 293.
 Wealthy men could do infinite harm, 213.
 Webb, Dr. Seward, a useful man, 253.
 Webster and Worcester exchanged, 205.
 Wells, David A., proposal, 180.
 Wells, David A., epitome of the period, 22.
 Western Union Telegraph Co., contract of, 99.
 Whale back craft, dominating navigation, 218.
 Whale fishery of New England, 330.
 What shall we do with Canada? 138.
 Wheat and corn belt occupied, 80.
 Wheat a dollar a bushel, 17.
 Wheat Grown for Twenty years, 293.
 Wheat Movement toward the North, 399.
 Where will the farmer go? 87.
 Whether Living or Dying, a Home Certain, 250.
 Whitewashing One's self, 209.
 Who Pays Expenses of Competition? 219.
 Why Should Politics Enter? 145.
 Why should there be Debts Abroad? 85.
 Wild West on Staten Island, 167.
 Will Mercantile Failures cease? 277.
 Windom's, Secretary, Great Comparison, 293.
 Winnipeg, Centre of Continent, 293.
 Withdrawal of Capital, 39.
 Within a boy's lifetime.
 Wolves in plenty, 279.
 Woman's new place, 199.
 Wood, O. S., pioneer of telegraphy, 308.
 World fighting for food and fibre, 62.
 Wrecks and ruins in business, 28.
 Wrestling from Nature, 59.
 Wrestling money from each other, 353.
Yellow Strand of Orientalism, 302.
 Young fortune hunters, Hints for, 319.
 Young loafer provided for, 58.
 Young man's chances, 31.
 Youth of the country in gold mining, 37.